Signal: 04 Josh MacPhee, Alec Dunn, 2015-06-01 Signal is an ongoing book series dedicated to documenting and sharing compelling graphics art projects and cultural movements of international resistance and liberation struggles Artists and cultural workers have been at the center of upheavals and revolts the world over from the painters and poets in the Paris Commune to the poster makers and street theatre performers of the recent Occupy movement Signal will bring these artists and their work to a new audience digging deep through our common history to unearth their images and stories We have no doubt that Signal will come to serve as a unique and irreplaceable resource for activist artists and academic researchers as well as an active forum for critique of the role of art in revolution Highlights of the fourth volume of Signal include Imaging Palestine Rochelle Davis and Emma Murphy take a look at Palestinian Affairs one of the PLO s major publications Fighting Fire with Water Lincoln Cushing discusses the Bay Area Peace Navy s large scale visual interventions The Walls Speak Even If the Media Is Silent Tennessee Watson documents a project made in response to the violence in Ju rez Revolutionary Continuum Jared Davidson cracks open New Zealand s Kotare Trust Poster Archive Kommune 1 Michael McCanne teases out the early years of West Germany s militant counterculture Illustrating the 3rd World Josh MacPhee interviews Max Karl Winkler book cover designer for Three Continents Press Dynamic Collectivity Ryan Hayes traces the history of Toronto s Punchclock Printing Collective In the US

there is a tendency to focus only on the artworks produced within our shores or from English speaking producers Signal reaches beyond those bounds bringing material produced the world over translated from dozens of languages and collected from both the present and decades past Though it is a full color printed publication Signal is not limited to the graphic arts Within its pages you will find political posters and fine arts comics and murals street art site specific works zines art collectives documentation of performance and articles on the often overlooked but essential role all of these have played in struggles around the world

Rewriting Narratives in Egyptian Theatre Sirkku Aaltonen, Areeg Ibrahim, 2016-03-31 This study of Egyptian theatre and its narrative construction explores the ways representations of Egypt are created of and within theatrical means from the 19th century to the present day Essays address the narratives that structure theatrical textual and performative representations and the ways the rewriting process has varied in different contexts and at different times Drawing on concepts from Theatre and Performance Studies Translation Studies Cultural Studies Postcolonial Studies and Diaspora Studies scholars and practitioners from Egypt and the West enter into dialogue with one another expanding understanding of the different fields The articles focus on the ways theatre texts and performances change are rewritten when crossing borders between different worlds The concept of rewriting is seen to include translation transformation and reconstruction and the different borders may be cultural and national between languages and dramaturgies or borders that are present in people s everyday lives Essays consider how rewritings and performances cross borders from one culture nation country and language to another They also study the process of rewriting the resulting representations of foreign plays on stage and representations of the Egyptian revolution on stage and in Tahrir Square This assessment of the relationship between theatre practices exchanges and rewritings in Egyptian theatre brings vital coverage to an undervisited area and will be of interest to developments in theatre translation and beyond

Jewish Survival Ernest Krausz, 2023-04-14 These essays address Jewish identity Jewish survival and Jewish continuity The authors account for and analyze trends in Jewish identification and the reciprocal effects of the relationship between the Diaspora and Israel at the end of the twentieth century Jewish identification in contemporary society is a complex phenomenon Since the emancipation of Jews in Europe and the major historic events of the Holocaust and the establishment of the State of Israel there have been substantial changes in the collective Jewish identity As a result Jewish identity and the Jewish process of identification had to confront the new realities of an open society its economic globalization and the impacts of cultural pluralism The trends in Jewish identification are toward fewer and weaker points of attachment fewer Jews who hold religious beliefs with such beliefs held less strongly less religious ritual observance attachment to Zionism and Israel becoming diluted and ethnic communal bonds weakening Jews are also more involved in the wider society in the Diaspora due to fewer barriers and less overt anti-Semitism This opens up possibilities for cultural integration and assimilation In Israel too there are signs of greater interest in the modern world culture The major questions addressed by this volume is whether Jewish civilization will continue to provide the basic social framework and values that will lead Jews into the twenty first century and ensure their survival as a specific social entity The book contains special contributions by Professor Julius Gould and Professor Irving Louis Horowitz and chapters on Sociological Analysis of Jewish Identity Jewish Community Boundaries and Factual Accounts from the Diaspora and Israel

The Literary Heritage of the Arabs Suheil Bushrui, James Malarkey, 2014-06-05 The Literary Heritage of the Arabs samples some of the finest literature produced by Arab writers in the last 1 500 years The selection of poetry and prose spans many genres and styles conveying the full range of Arab experiences and perspectives from the tragic to the comic the wistful to the mystical the courtly to the lowly and the Arab East to Andalusia The reader of this anthology will become aware of the extent to which this vibrant and distinctive literary heritage has always been both receptive to the currents from neighbouring cultures and influential in the evolution of other literary traditions in South Asia Western Europe and beyond Thus the reader will discover behind local colours and different literary conventions our common humanity
