Syntax Of The Albanian Verb Complex:

The Syntax of the Albanian Verb Complex Philip L. Hubbard, 2016-11-10 This work first published in 1985 is an analysis of the syntax of the Albanian verb complex The term verb complex is defined here as the verb stem and its conjugational endings together with the perfect auxiliaries and verb clitics In a wider sense the verb includes the verb and its central arguments subject direct object and indirect object The analysis is presented in a somewhat expanded version of the relational grammar framework of Perlmutter and Postal 1977 It is argued that by assuming the existence of multiple levels in the syntactic structure of a clause it is possible to account for the distribution of active and non active verb forms over the various constructions of Albanian with a single generalisation This title will be of interest to students of language and linguistics

The Nature of Syntactic Representation Pauline Jacobson, G.K. Pullum, 2012-12-06 The work collected in this book represents the results of some intensive recent work on the syntax of natural languages The authors differing viewpoints have in common the program of revising current conceptions of syntactic representation so that the role of transformational derivations is reduced or eliminated The fact that the papers cross refer to each other a good deal and that authors assuming quite different frameworks are aware of each other's results and address themselves to shared problems is partly the result of a conference on the nature of syntactic representation that was held at Brown University in May 1979 with the express purpose of bringing together different lines of research in syntax The papers in this volume mostly arise out of work that was presented in preliminary form at that conference though much rewriting and further research has been done in the interim period Two papers are included because although they were not given even in preliminary form at the conference it has become clear since then that they interrelate with the work of the conference so much that they cannot reasonably be left out Gerald Gazdar's statement of his program for phrase structure description of natural language forms the theoretical basis that is assumed by Maling and Zaenen and by Sag and David Dowty's paper represents a bridge between the relational grammar exemplified here in the papers by Perlmutter and Postal on the one hand and the Montague

Clitics Joel A. Nevis, Brian D. Joseph, Dieter Wanner, Arnold M. Zwicky, 1994-10-20 This bibliography provides an alphabetical listing of over 1500 articles books and dissertations that treat in some way the topic of clitics and related matters e.g. affixes words word order movement sandhi etc The beginning point for the bibliographic entries is 1892 taking Jacob Wackernagel's classic work as the point of departure and the entries cover the subsequent 100 year period Each entry is accompanied by a series of descriptors which give an indication of the content of the item Nearly one third of the book is a detailed analytic index based on the descriptors which can aid in topical searches for relevant material Prefatory matter includes an essay What is a Clitic by Arnold M. Zwicky a brief consideration of Wackernagel's scholarly career by Brian D. Joseph and information on the format and use of the book itself

Studies of Passive Clauses Paul Martin

Postal,1986-01-01 In this work Paul M Postal supports the universalist theory of language by examining passive clauses. Contrary to a skeptical tradition Postal argues that passive clauses are cross linguistically identifiable and characterizable. This study proposes refinements of the analysis of the natural language grammatical category Passive Clause. These refinements include an account of the notion dummy nominal central to the analysis of impersonal passive clauses, additions permitting a proper typology of the major known subtypes of Passive Clause, a generalization permitting application to clauses whose subjects are not earlier level direct objects, and construction of precise rule concepts to represent restrictions on passive clauses. The passive domain supports the universalist approach in three distinguishable ways: 1 by permitting formulation of otherwise apparently unstatable lawful characteristics of all passive structures; 2 by facilitating statement of language specific passive constraints holding in diverse languages; and 3 by allowing uniform statement in grammars of recurrent constraints on passives. Each mode of support is applied to actual cases based on material from more than a dozen languages from English and French to Quiche Mayan and Chi Mwi ni Bantu. Balkan Syntax and (Universal) Principles of Grammar Iliyana Krapova, Brian Joseph, 2018-11-19 This book investigates morpho syntactic convergences that characterize the languages of the Balkan Sprachbund: Balkan Slavic, Greek, Romanian, Albanian, Balkan Romani. Apart from new data, the volume features contributions within different theoretical frameworks: contact linguistics, functional linguistics, typology, areal linguistics, and generative grammar. Datives and Other Cases Daniel P. Hole, Werner Abraham, André Meinunger, 2006-01-01 This volume provides a state of the art account of research into datives and other morphological cases. The contributors, among them leading scholars in the field, present fresh insights into traditional issues such as the dichotomy between lexical and structural case and open up fascinating new areas of research. A recurrent feature of the majority of contributions is their combined syntax semantics perspective. Germanic varieties, Serbian, Albanian, and other Balkan languages alongside Chinese, Japanese, Tagalog are discussed from various theoretical angles such as mainstream generativism, lexical functional grammar, and functional typology. Despite the broad range of facts spanning the distance between acquisition data and dialectology, the papers are connected by a renewed interest in form function correspondencies. This volume will be welcomed by theoretical linguists and typologists with an interest in argument and event structure, linguists studying the case systems of individual languages, and researchers in search for up to date discussion of Germanic datives. Studies in Relational Grammar 3 David M.
