Suicide Notes Predictive Clues And Patterns:

Suicide Notes Antoon A. Leenaars,1988 Comprehensive Textbook of Suicidology Alan Lee Berman,Morton M. Silverman,Bruce Michael Bongar,2000-08-10 Multidisciplinary and comprehensive in scope this volume serves as an authoritative overview of scientific knowledge about suicide and its prevention providing a foundation in theory research and clinical applications Issues relevant to clinical case management are highlighted and various treatment modalities are discussed in light of the latest research findings The Comparison of Genuine and Simulated Suicide Notes Stephen T. Black,1989 The Digital Departed Timothy Recuber,2023-09-12 A sociologist examines the ways we die online and the digital texts we leave behind including blogs of the terminally ill suicide notes post mortem messages and hashtags about police brutality The book argues that the Internet has reenchanting our notions of selfhood but in ways that blind us to the inequalities underpinning our digital lives Night Falls Fast Kay Redfield Jamison,2000-10-10 Critical reading for parents educators and anyone wanting to understand the tragic epidemic of suicide a powerful book that will change people s lives and doubtless save a few Newsday The first major book in a quarter century on suicide and its terrible pull on the young in particular Night Falls Fast is tragically timely suicide has become one of the most common killers of Americans between the ages of fifteen and forty five From the author of the best selling memoir An Unquiet Mind and an internationally acknowledged authority on depression Dr Jamison has also known suicide firsthand after years of struggling with manic depression she tried at age twenty eight to kill herself Weaving together a historical and scientific exploration of the subject with personal essays on individual suicides she brings not only her remarkable compassion and literary skill but also all of her knowledge and research to bear on this devastating problem This is a book that helps us to understand the suicidal mind to recognize and come to the aid of those at risk and to comprehend the profound effects on those left behind

Suicidology Ronald W. Maris,2019-03-04 Integrating research from multiple disciplines this text provides a comprehensive perspective on suicide and examines what works in prevention and intervention The author is a pioneering researcher and clinician who addresses the classification prevalence and assessment of suicide and self destructive behaviors and explores risk factors at multiple levels from demographic variables personality traits psychiatric diagnoses and neurobiological factors to the social and cultural context Student friendly features include text boxes that dive deeply into specific issues instructive figures and tables thought provoking clinical cases and engaging examples from literature and popular culture The text reviews medical and psychosocial treatment and prevention approaches discusses ways to help those bereaved by suicide and considers issues of professional liability Psychotherapy with Suicidal People Antoon A. Leenaars,2004-05-14 Almost a million people die by suicide every year WHO estimate The sheer numbers have made suicide prevention a major health target but effective prevention is not straightforward Suicide is a complex event more complex than most of us imagine calling for an equally complex response Psychotherapy with Suicidal People provides a multi component approach with rich clinical data including many case histories to guide the reader Based on decades of research from across the globe Antoon A Leenaars takes the reader into the mind of the suicidal person from the young to the elderly from the anonymous to the famous There is no better way to know and thus to treat a person A plethora of special features makes this volume an international classic and includes Reflections of many suicidologists such as Heraclitus Plato Sigmund Freud Emile Durkheim and Edwin Shneidman A unique window on the clinical mind of the author Empirically supported definition with applications across age gender historical time as well as culture The report of the International Working Group on Ethical and Legal Issues in Suicidology Psychotherapy with Suicidal People A Person centred Approach is essential reading for clinical psychologists psychiatrists and their trainees and all clinicians who work with suicidal people Suicide Notes Antoon A. Leenaars,1988 Suicide and the Unconscious Antoon A. Leenaars,David Lester,1996 Today there is a wealth of experience in the study of suicide from many diverse perspectives including anthropology criminology epidemiology medicine psychiatry psychology and sociology However when unconscious processes are neglected research fails to provide us with an adequate understanding of the wish to kill oneself Sociology of Deviant Behavior Marshall B. Clinard,Robert Frank Meier,2001 Designed to appeal to today s students the eleventh edition examines topics with relevance for today cultural and social reactions to deviance the growing interest in white collar and corporate crime and the importance of the Internet and computer communications in changing views on deviance in modern life Crisis ,1991 Extraordinary Behavior Dennis L. Peck,Norman A. Dolch,2001 Annotation Analyzes illustrates and evaluates contemporary social problems using a symbolic interaction and case study approach Adolescent Suicide Alan Lee Berman,David A. Jobes,Morton M. Silverman,2006 For the past decade Adolescent Suicide Assessment and Intervention has been recognized as the best and most authoritative text on this most tragic of subjects This long awaited second edition incorporates almost 15 years of new research and critical thinking about clinical assessment and intervention in addition to an expanded focus on prevention Authored by three of the world s leading experts on suicide including among them a psychiatrist this book is a must have reference and text for those working with this at risk population This volume reflects on what is current and promising in working with the suicidal adolescent and provides information relevant to theory research practice and intervention It provides empirically based findings that can be easily integrated and translated for practical use by the clinician In addition the book includes discussion of malpractice risk management over 40 case illustrations and an extensive list of references all of which help provide a thorough understanding of the at risk for suicide patient Suicide Bruce Michael Bongar,1992 Each year almost 30 000 individuals take their own lives making suicide the eighth leading cause of death in the United States The data on completed suicide become all the more disturbing when one considers that completed suicides represent only a small percentage of the number of attempts that suicide may be statistically underreported and that the rates of suicide in many industrialized countries are increasing Suicide has likewise been found to be the most frequently encountered emergency situation for mental health professionals with clinicians consistently ranking work with suicidal patients as the most stressful of all clinical endeavors Combining the clinical experience and practical recommendations of some of the world's foremost authorities on suicidal and life threatening behaviors Suicide Guidelines for Assessment Management and Treatment is designed to fill current gaps in the training efforts of the mental health and health care professions in teaching clinicians how best to work with suicidal patients The chapters are constructed as modules that cover a specific topic in a basic curriculum on suicidology and include workable practice guidelines that are both essential and up to date Topics include theories of suicide epidemiology of suicide biological research understanding child and youth suicide and suicide among the elderly procedures for detection of high risk factors emergency room care hospitalization and its alternatives psychopharmacological treatments psychological assessment cognitive and psychodynamic approaches to working with suicidal patients training and supervision of mental health professionals in the study of suicide postvention malpractice and risk management and forensic issues in suicidology By bringing together in one landmark volume the cumulative clinical wisdom of many of the pre eminent experts in suicidology this book for the first time provides the practitioner and practitioner in training with a set of clear and useful guidelines for working with the suicidal patient in clinical practice As such it will have broad appeal to psychologists psychiatrists social workers marriage and family therapists and other mental health professionals as well as to primary care physicians nurses and other health care professionals
