The Perfect Game:

Perfect Game USA and the Future of Baseball Les Edgerton, 2009-01-14 For decades baseball scouts have beat the bushes for talent wandering throughout the United States in search of promising young players But technology and competition have recently brought about big changes as potential stars are identified as early as Little League The largest such scouting and development service Perfect Game USA has become the primary pipeline to college and professional baseball with its participants accounting for more than 70 percent of the players taken in the 2007 amateur draft This book looks at the history methods and impact of Perfect Game USA which continues to change the landscape of youth baseball

The Cooperstown Symposium on Baseball and American Culture, 2019 and 2021 William M. Simons, 2022-05-16 Selected from the two most recent proceedings of the Cooperstown Symposium on Baseball and American Culture 2019 and 2021 this collection of essays explores subject matter centered both inside and beyond the ballpark Fifteen contributors offer critical commentary on a range of topics including controversial decisions on the field and in Hall of Fame elections baseball's historical role as a rite of passage for boys two worthy catchers who never received their due the genesis and development of the minor leagues and baseball's place in popular culture

Love as a Guide to Morals Andrew Fitz-Gibbon, 2012-01-01 Love as a Guide to Morals is an entry level introduction to the ethical importance of love Written in conversational format this book looks uniquely at the complexity of love in human relationships and how love can guide ethical decision making The book suggests that love in all its intricacy erotic erosive love friendship affection and agapic love is the great good of human life The book argues that love has a unifying power for morality and is more suited to ethical thinking and practice than any other idea Love as a Guide to Morals uses a modified Aristotelian argument after Alasdair MacIntyre and suggests loving relationships rather than happiness as the goal of human life
