Über Alles Leon Festinger, 1953      Über Alles George Mikes, 1962      Generational Shifts in Contemporary German Culture Laurel Cohen-Pfister, Susanne Veas-Gulani, 2010

The concept of the generation in today's German culture and literature and its role in German identity In the debates since 1945 on German history and culture the concept of generations has become ever more prominent Recent and ongoing shifts in how the various generations are seen and see themselves in relation to history and to each other have taken on key importance in contemporary German cultural studies The seismic events of twentieth century German history are no longer solely first generational lived experiences but are also historical moments seen through the eyes of successor generations The generation seen as a category of memory thus holds a key to major shifts in German identity The changing generational perspectives of German writers and filmmakers not only reflect but also influence these trends exposing both the expected differences between generational views and unexpected continuities Moreover as younger artists reframe recent history older generations like the 1968ers are also contributing to these shifts by reassessing their own experiences and cultural contributions This volume of new essays applies current discourse on generations in German culture to contemporary works dealing with major sociohistorical events since the Nazi period

Contributors Svea Br unert Laurel Cohen Pfister Friederike Eigler Thomas C Fox Katharina Gerstenberger Erin McGlothlin Brad Prager Ilka Rasch Susanne Rinner Caroline Schaumann Maria Stehle Reinhild Steingr ver Susanne Veas Gulani Laurel Cohen Pfister is Associate Professor of German at Gettysburg College and Susanne Veas Gulani is Assistant Professor of German and Comparative Literature at Case Western Reserve University

The Routledge Encyclopedia of Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century Sorrel Kerbel, 2004-11-23 Now available in paperback for the first time Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century is both a comprehensive reference resource and a springboard for further study This volume examines canonical Jewish writers less well known authors of Yiddish and Hebrew and emerging Israeli writers includes entries on figures as diverse as Marcel Proust Franz Kafka Tristan Tzara Eugene Ionesco Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Arthur Miller Saul Bellow Nadine Gordimer and Woody Allen contains introductory essays on Jewish American writing Holocaust literature and memoirs Yiddish writing and Anglo Jewish literature provides a chronology of twentieth century Jewish writers Compiled by expert contributors this book contains over 330 entries on individual authors each consisting of a biography a list of selected publications a scholarly essay on their work and suggestions for further reading

Power and the People Eleonore C. M. Breuning, Dr. Jill Lewis, Gareth Pritchard, 2005 This book covers various aspects of the social history of politics on both sides of the Iron Curtain in the period 1945 to 1956 The contributors come from a range of countries Austria Germany Hungary Slovakia and the United Kingdom and comprise a mixture of established historians and younger scholars engaged in pioneering research The individual chapters are organised into four sections dealing with workers ethnic and linguistic minorities youth and women In order to enhance the comparative character of the volume the four chapters contained in each section consider the position of these social groups in respectively West Germany East Germany Austria and either Czechoslovakia or Hungary Major themes include the absence of popular revolutions in the aftermath of World War Two the re imposition of social control by post war elites the attempt to restore pre war gender relations and the failure of Communist parties to win popular support The chosen time frame saw most of the decisive developments which set the pattern for the remaining Cold War period and is therefore of key importance for any student of this topic

The Faces of Janus Nicole Brunnhuber,2005 The author offers an interdisciplinary examination of the German speaking exile experience in Great Britain from the beginnings of the Nazi regime to the end of the Second World War The book examines the contingencies of cultural production for German and Austrian exiles against the historical context of British immigration and internment policies By investigating the influence and manipulation of trends in popular British culture in the English language exile fiction by Ernest Borneman Robert Neumann Ruth Feiner Lilo Linke and George Tabori the author illustrates how a suspect minority voiced their socio political concerns in the dominant culture and presents a strong case for the facilities of polylingualism in literature The book reconstructs biographical and cultural histories of authors whose remarkable success as English language writers may otherwise risk lingering in obscurity Since the author traces the interaction of historical events and the personal experience of a range of writers themes of gender based national and religious identities are addressed Flexible and accessible the book extracts meaning from the politics of popular culture and cultural exchange in the twentieth century during a period of nationalism acute jingoism and war

Transnational Business Cultures Fiona Moore,2016-02-11 This volume explores how the idea of culture is used and exploited by transnational managers to further their own ambitions and their companies strategies for expansion It thus provides a more complex picture of culture than has previously been presented in business studies in that it deals with the strategic value of culture within organizations rather than viewing it as a neutral concept and through using qualitative methodologies gives us a full picture of the lived experience of culture in a multinational corporation It also considers the impact of global corporate activity on both national and organizational cultures as well as looking specifically at the ways in which communications technology is used as a site of conflict and negotiation in business This book will be an invaluable resource for both researchers and professionals yielding important new insights into the roles of local and global cultures in the operation of transnational corporations

The Berlin Airlift Barry Turner,2017-10-05 Acclaimed historian Barry Turner presents a new history of the Cold War s defining episode Berlin 1948 a divided city in a divided country in a divided Europe The ruined German capital lay 120 miles inside Soviet controlled eastern Germany Stalin wanted the Allies out the Allies were determined to stay but had only three narrow air corridors linking the city to the West Stalin was confident he could crush Berlin s resolve by cutting off food and fuel In the USA despite some voices still urging America first it was believed that a rebuilt Germany was the best insurance against the spread of communism across Europe And so over eleven months from June 1948 to May 1949 British and American aircraft carried out the most ambitious airborne relief operation ever mounted flying over 2 million tons of supplies on almost 300 000 flights to save a beleaguered Berlin With new material from American British and German archives and original interviews with veterans Turner paints a fresh vivid picture the airlift whose repercussions the role of the USA as global leader German ascendancy Russian threat we are still living with today Über Alles George Mikes,1966 German Travel Cultures Rudy Koshar,2000-10 Looks at the development and use of German guidebooks the first comprehensive discussion of the history of tourist guidebooks for any modern nation Page 4 of cover Dictionary of the English and German Languages ...
