

SUGAR STREET

Jonathan Dee

FINALIST FOR THE PULITZER PRIZE

A photograph of a person walking away from the camera on a modern architectural structure made of parallel steel beams and glass panels. The person is wearing a dark jacket and a light-colored hat. The sky is bright blue with scattered white clouds, and the person's reflection is visible on the glass surface below them.

'This propulsive and furious book is as fun to read as it is relentless and unsparing. Deranged and faltering America, Jonathan Dee has your number'

Senate,1897 Signs of a Colonial Era ,2009-01-01 In the street names of Hong Kong a rich history of the city can be found The authors in this illustrated book explore that history as they explain the origins and meanings of those names Through their exhaustive research Signs from a Colonial Era provides the stories behind the well known streets and those that are obscure and puzzling But a few have resisted their efforts so there is a chapter of mysteries to intrigue and challenge the reader This is a book to be read in two ways From the front you can find all the streets named after royalty or governors or other groups such as taipans and see the naming of streets as a narrative of Hong Kong s development and society In the other direction starting from the index it can be used as a reference book to find the answers to those names that have long puzzled you The bilingual author team gives the Chinese street names exploring those that were just chosen to sound like the English name and sometimes changed to avoid unfortunate Cantonese meanings and those others for which the Chinese name has no connection with the English one This is a book for everyone who has ever puzzled over a street name as they explore Hong Kong Report United States.
