Educator ,1905 Boston Boston Chamber of Commerce. Bureau of Commercial and Industrial Affairs,1922 The Morning Star and Free Baptist ,1897 “The” Strand Magazine ,1897 Public Poet, Private Man Christoph Irmscher,2009 Based on an exhibition at the Houghton Library and was originally published as a special issue of the Harvard Library Bulletin Volume 17 Numbers 3 4 Cambridge Sketches Frank Preston Stearns,1905 Excerpt speaker but possessed greater resources for debate Judge Story had noticed long before that facts were so carefully and systematically arranged in Sumner s mind that whatever spring was touched he could always respond to the subject with a full and exact statement He was like a librarian who could lay his hand on the book he wanted without having to look for it in the catalogue and this upon a scale which seems almost incredible Webster possessed the same faculty but united it with a sense of artistic beauty which Sumner could not equal Sumner however was the best orator in Congress at this time as well as the best legal authority On all constitutional questions it was felt that he had Judge Story s support behind him His oration on Freedom National Slavery Sectional was a revelation not only to the opposition but to his own party From that time forth he became the spokesman of his party on all the more important questions It frequently happens that the essential character of a government changes while its form remains the same In 1801 France was nominally a Republic but its administration was Imperial In 1853 the United States ceased to be a democracy and became an oligarchy governed by thirty thousand slave holders until the people reconquered their rights on the field of battle Accustomed to despotic power in their own States for more than two generations and justifying themselves always by divine right the slave holders possessed all the self confidence pretension and arrogance of the old French nobility They were a self deluded class of men of all classes the most difficult to deal with and Sumner was the Mirabeau who faced them at Washington and who pricked the bubble of their Olympian pretensions by a most pitiless exposure of their true character Those men had come to believe that the ownership of slaves was equivalent to a patent of nobility and they were encouraged in this monarchical illusion by the The Works of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow: Life of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow Henry Wadsworth Longfellow,1891
