

Derek Hudson's new collection of literary essays will be welcomed by connoisseurs of biography. It opens with an imaginary account of conversations with 'F. B. Fuddy', an aged author who has some searching comments to make on life and letters in his time, particularly on the use of words. The other items are all taken from the past 150 years. They include a number of subjects on which Mr Hudson may be reckoned an authority—there is a long essay on Lewis Carroll, for example, and essays on W. M. Praed, Martin Tupper, E. S. Dallas, Alfred Douglas, Algernon Blackwood and Harold Nicolson. The book concludes with an engaging one-act play about W. G. Grace.

Mr Hudson's many books have been appreciatively reviewed ever since Humbert Wolfe commended his life of Praed in the Observer in 1939. Michael Foot praised his 'excellent' biography of Thomas Barnes, and John Betjeman his 'lively portrait' of Charles Keene and his 'enthusiastic' biography of Sir Joshua Reynolds. Writing in the Daily Telegraph, Harold Nicolson said of his life of Tupper that 'everyone should read it'. His latest works have been an abridgement of Henry Crabb Robinson's diary and a study of Holland House in Kensington.

John O'London's described a previous collection of essays, The Forgotten King, as 'splendid bedside reading' and hoped that 'another collection may be published before long'. Richard Church declared that Mr Hudson commands the technique of essay-writing 'with dexterity and a professional ease'. Talks with Fuddy and other Papers can therefore be enjoyed both for its entertainment value and as a contribution to social and literary history.
