The Destroying Angel ... With Illustrations by Arthur I. Keller Louis Joseph Vance,1912     The Destroyer and the Lamb Matthias Reinhard Hoffmann,2005 Matthias Reinhard Hoffmann identifies an angelomorphic portrait of Christ in certain passages of Revelation and provides possible reasons for the inclusion of an angelomorphic Christology Angelomorphic Christology is not regarded as an isolated christological concept In turn the author compares angelomorphic Christology with the prominent Lamb Christology of Revelation A comparison of these concepts reveals that both Lamb and angelomorphic Christology serve the purpose of contrasting different functions of Christ The functions correspond with the implied perception of Christ by his followers on the one hand and his opponents on the other

Accordingly Christ appears to be an eschatological juridical figure described in angelomorphic patterns to his opposition while he is perceived as salvific redeemer in form of the Lamb by those who believe in him Such a christological perspective draws on traditions from the Exodus narrative namely the features of the Passover Lamb and the Destroying Angel Further equality between God and Christ is established despite an angelomorphic portrait of Christ especially those passages describing Christ as the Lamb put him on par with God But also within visions with an angelomorphic description of Christ his status as superior to angels and as an equal to God is displayed
