The Development Of Housing In Scotland:

The Development of Housing in Scotland Douglas Niven, 2021-06-29 Originally published in 1979 this volume begins with an historical summary of housing development in Scotland Scottish urban housing has always followed a unique and distinctive pattern from the rest of the UK resembling more closely the flatted developments of Continental Europe The book compares the policies and programmes of development in EU countries and Scandinavia The problems caused by over emphasis on public sector housing in Scotland since the First World War are discussed A break down of the work carried out by housing societies and associations reveals little national or local support in Scotland unlike in European or Scandinavian countries where such association have formed a vital element in their housing policies

The Evolution of Housing

Stewart Montgomery, 2025-09-24 The study evaluates developments in housing law and related housing policy in the context of economic political and social changes within capitalism A central theme is to provide a comprehensive outline of the evolution of social rented housing through the lens of housing law Developments in private sector housing are also examined to demonstrate how tenure forms shift in line with economic and political requirements As well as assessing developments across the United Kingdom specific sections focus on Scottish housing One innovative section is the assessment of specific housing association activities in the 1980s The study concludes with two alternative ways of addressing contemporary housing problems A systemic and inter disciplinary perspective is provided to understand the nature of developments in housing law and related policy The study draws on specific philosophical and theoretical perspectives and elucidates that housing law is essentially reformist in nature People likely to find this book of interest are academics historians housing professionals policy makers social scientists solicitors students and members of the public
