The Task of the Interpreter Pol Vandeveld,2005-10-09 The Task of the Interpreter offers a new approach to what it means to interpret a text and reconciles the possibility of multiple interpretations with the need to consider the author's intention Vandeveld argues that interpretation is both an act and an event It is an act in that interpreters through the statements they make implicitly commit themselves to justifying their positions if prompted It is an event in that interpreters are situated in a cultural and historical framework and come to a text with questions concerns and methods of which they are not fully conscious These two aspects make interpretation a negotiation of meaning The Task of the Interpreter provides an interdisciplinary investigation of textual interpretation including biblical hermeneutics Gregory the Great's Homilies on Ezekiel translation Homer's The Odyssey and literary fictions Grass's Dog Years and Sabato's On Heroes and Tombs Vandeveld's philosophical discussion will appeal to theorists of both continental and analytical pragmatic traditions

as a result of transnational population flows and globalized media The contributions to this volume propose reconceptualizations of orthodox accounts of intercultural communication based on supposed national cultural characteristics They approach the subject from a variety of angles including intercultural communication training the role of power in intercultural negotiations the linguistic situation in Europe and the conflict between nationalist and transnational discourses in literature The articles consider the need for a revision of the notions of culture and communication given multicultural and multilingual environments such as universities the use of English as a lingua franca in Europe how collaborative discourse can reshape power relations the importance of social intelligence in intercultural communication cultural and linguistic influences on conceptual metaphors and their translation and the way Irish and Galician women poets negotiate competing ideologies such as nationalism feminism Celticism and Catholicism This book was published as a special issue of the European Journal of English Studies The Ethics of Interpretation Pol Vandeveldt, 2023-03-07 This book discusses the ethical dimension of the interpretation of texts and events Its purpose is not to address the neutrality or ideological biases of interpreters but rather to discuss the underlying issue of the intervention of interpreters into the process of interpretation The author calls this intervention the ethical aspect of interpretation and argues that interpreters are neither neutral nor necessarily activists He examines three models of interpretation all of which recognize the role that interpreters play in the process of interpretation In these models the question of the truth or validity of interpretation is dependent upon the attitude of interpreters These three models are 1 the principle of charity in interpretation in the two different versions defended by Hans Georg Gadamer and Donald Davidson 2 the production of truth as developed by Paul Ricoeur and Michel Foucault and 3 the regulative principle in interpretation as formal validity claims as presented by Karl Otto Apel and Jürgen Habermas and as benevolence or love as an epistemic virtue as defended by Friedrich Schlegel and Friedrich Schleiermacher The critical discussion of these three models which brings to the fore the different manners in which interpreters intervene in the process of interpretation as persons lays the foundations for an ethics of interpretation The Ethics of Interpretation will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in hermeneutics 19th and 20th century philosophy literary theory and cultural theory American Catholic Philosophical Quarterly, 2007 Proceedings and Addresses of the American Philosophical Association American Philosophical Association, 2005 List of members in v 1 The Review of Metaphysics, 2006 Auslegung, 2007 Bibliographie de la philosophie, 2005 Journal of the History of Ideas, 2006 An international quarterly devoted to intellectual history The Philosophical Review Jacob Gould Schurman, James Edwin Creighton, Frank Thilly, Gustavus Watts Cunningham, 2006 An international journal of general philosophy American Book Publishing Record, 2005 The Philosopher's Index, 2006 Vols for 1969 include a section of abstracts La traduzione multimediale Rosa Maria Bollettieri Bosinelli, 2000 Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts, 2008 Die Theorie des Übersetzens und ihr Aufschlusswert für die Übersetzungs- und
