The Trimmed Lamp 1907 is a collection of twenty five short stories by American writer O Henry Inspired by his experiences as a fugitive and prisoner these stories address themes of poverty and city life with humor and abundant empathy Its focus on the regular working class people of New York City makes The Trimmed Lamp a sequel of sorts to Henry s The Four Million 1906 perhaps his most important collection In The Trimmed Lamp two friends discuss work love and money while standing on a city street corner They both came to New York in search of work and though Nancy enjoys her low paying job as a shop girl at a department store Lou brags about her employment as an ironer at a laundry and encourages her friend to look for something else to do While they wait for Lou s boyfriend Dan Lou asks Nancy about the wealthy men who frequent her store and secretly wonders what it would be like to marry into money The Last Leaf is a story of two artists living in Greenwich Village While Sue lies bedridden from pneumonia each day growing closer to death she watches from her window a vine across the street As fall turns to winter its leaves drop one by one until nothing remains but one last leaf In another apartment an old artist named Behrman watches the vine as well painting the leaf with a renewed sense of purpose and a lifetime of skill and precision With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript this edition of O Henry s The Trimmed Lamp is a classic of American literature reimagined for modern readers     The Trimmed Lamp, and Other Stories O. The Trimmed Lamp O. Henry,2015-07-07 Excerpt from The Trimmed Lamp And Other Stories of the Four Million OF course there are two sides to the question Let us look at the other We often hear shop girls spoken Of No such persons exist There are girls who work in shops They make their living that way But why turn their occupation into an adjective Let us be fair We do not refer to the girls who live on Fifth Avenue as marriage girls Lou and Nancy were chums They came to the big city to find work because there was not enough to eat at their homes to go around Nancy was nineteen Lou was twenty Both were pretty active country girls who had no ambition to go on the stage The little cherub that sits up aloft guided them to a cheap and respectable boarding house Both found positions and became wage earners They remained chums It is at the end of six months that I would beg you to step forward and be introduced to them Meddlesome Reader My Lady friends Miss Nancy and Miss Lou While you are shaking hands please take notice cautiously of their attire Yes cautiously for they are as quick to resent a stare as a lady in a box at the horse show is About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
