Trollope Society:

The Trollope Society Alfred Edward Newton, 1934 Anthony Trollope's Late Style Van Dam Frederik Van Dam, 2016-01-19 This study focuses on Anthony Trollope's stylistic innovations in relation to Victorian liberalism. In his biography of William Makepeace Thackeray, Anthony Trollope posits the ideal of a man without style: "I hold that gentleman to be the best dressed whose dress no one observes." I am not sure but that the same may be said of an author's written language. Trollope's own appearance, unlike his written language, did not pass without observation. However, a contemporary poet recalls that he was hirsute and taurine of aspect. This study unravels this paradox. It disentangles the many threads in Trollope's ostensibly transparent writing and reassembles the political and intellectual fabric that they weave, thus showing how Trollope's language exceeds and questions the concepts provided by contemporary ideologies.

Key Features Shows how Trollope's stylistic peculiarities perform his inflection of Victorian liberalism. Reads Victorian literature through the lens of German post-Romantic thinkers such as Goethe and Walter Benjamin. Presents a panorama of Victorian liberalism in its literary, intellectual, and political context. Examines the writings from the last decade of Trollope's life that have received only scant critical attention, such as his novellas and his biographies.

The Trollope Society Alfred Edward Newton, 1934 New Men in Trollope's Novels Margaret Markwick, 2017-11-28 New Men in Trollope's Novels challenges the popular construction of Victorian men as patriarchal despots and suggests that hands-on fatherhood may have been a nineteenth-century norm. Beginning with an evaluation of the evidence for cultural determinations of masculinity during Trollope's times, the author sets the stage with a discussion of the religious, philosophical, and educational influences that informed the evolution of Trollope's personal views of masculinity as he grew from boyhood into later manhood. Her treatment of his novels, drawing on a wide selection from across the oeuvre, shows that sensitive examination of Trollope's texts discovers him advancing a startlingly modern model of manhood under a veneer of conformity. Trollope's independent views on child-rearing, education, courtship, marriage, parenthood, and gay men are also discussed within the context of Victorian culture. In this witty, original, and immensely knowledgeable study of Victorian masculinity.

The Ritual Culture of Victorian Professionals Albert D. Pionke, 2016-02-24 Focusing on the middle decades of the nineteenth century, Albert D. Pionke's book historicizes the relationship of ritual, class, and public status in Victorian England. His analysis of various discourses related to professionalization suggests that public ritual flourished during the period, especially among the burgeoning ranks of Victorian professions. As Pionke shows, magazines, court cases, law books, manuals, and works by authors that include William Makepeace Thackeray, Thomas Hughes, Anthony Trollope, Charles Dickens, George Eliot, and Elizabeth Barrett Browning demonstrate the importance of ritual in numerous professional settings Individual chapters reconstruct the ritual cultures of pre professionalism provided to Oxbridge undergraduates of oath taking in a wide range of professional creation and promotion ceremonies of the education promotion and public practice of Victorian barristers and of Victorian Parliamentary elections A final chapter considers the consequences of rituals that fail through the lens of the Eglinton tournament The uneasy place of Victorian writers who were both promoters of and competitors with more established professionals is considered throughout Pionke s book excavates Victorian professionals vital ritual culture at the same time that its engagement with literary representations of the professions reconstructs writers unique place in the zero sum contest for professional status Self and Society and the Form of Trollope's Social Novels Barbara Katherine Guhl,1974 A Bibliography of Robertson Davies Carl Spadoni, Judith Skelton Grant,2014-08-01 Robertson Davies 1913 1995 one of Canada s most distinguished authors of the twentieth century was known for his work as a novelist playwright critic journalist and professor This descriptive bibliography is dedicated to his writing career covering all publications from his first venture into print at the age of nine to works published posthumously to 2011 Entries include each of Davies signed publications and those pseudonymous or anonymous writings he acknowledged having written Included are his plays novels journalism academic writing translations interviews speeches lectures unsigned articles and editorials films audio recordings and multimedia editions Also listed is a generous sampling of unsigned articles and editorials Using Davies archives and the archives of other authors organizations and publishers Carl Spadoni and Judith Skelton Grant present A Bibliography of Robertson Davies to serve the research demands of Canadian literature and book history scholars Book Wants ,1904 The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross,William Shawn,Tina Brown,David Remnick,Katharine Sergeant Angell White,Rea Irvin,Roger Angell,1990 The Publications of the Harleian Society ,1891 The Mount Holyoke ,1908 New Statesman Society ,1992 LONDON SOCIETY AN ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE OF LIGHT AND AMUSING LITERATURE FOR THE HOURS OF RELAXATION ,1869 The Castles of England Sir James Dixon Mackenzie (7th bart. of Scatwell and 9th of Tarbat),1896 The Trollope Student Lance Tingay,1990 "The Castles of England, Their Story and Structure James D Mackenzie Baronet of Scatwell and Tarbat,1897 London Society ,1878 The Book Collector ,2009
