appreciated only for their artistic codicological or intellectual features and not for the insights they offer into the patterns of life and thought the underlying norms values and mentalities of the communities of men and women which made them Indeed the distinguished monastic historian David Knowles doubted there would ever be sufficient evidence to recover the mentality of the ordinary cloister monk These twelve essays challenge this view They exploit newly catalogued and newly discovered evidence manuscript books wall paintings and even the traces of original monastic music to recover the cultural dynamics of a cross section of male and female communities It is often claimed that over time the cultural traditions of the monasteries were suffocated by secular trends but here it is suggested that many houses remained a major cultural force even on the verge of the Reformation James G Clark is Professor of History at the University of Exeter Contributors DAVID BELL ROGER BOWERS JAMES CLARK BARRIE COLLETT MARY ERLER G R EVANS MIRIAM GILL JOAN GREATREX JULIAN HASELDINE J D NORTH ALAN PIPER AND R M THOMSON Greater Medieval Houses of England and Wales, 1300-1500:

Jackson, 2019-02-05 A heavily illustrated and highly designed tribute to Los Angeles architect Pierre Koenig a key figure of the Los Angeles Modernist movement In this remarkable and gorgeously illustrated book Neil Jackson presents a vibrant profile of the Los Angeles architect Pierre Koenig who Time magazine said lived long enough to become cool twice From the influences of Koenig's youth in San Francisco and his military service during World War II to the Case Study Houses and his later award laden years Jackson's study plots the evolution of Koenig's oeuvre against the backdrop of Los Angeles a city that both shaped and was shaped by his architecture The book is anchored by Jackson's exciting discoveries in Koenig's archive at the Getty Research Institute Drawings photographs diaries letters lecture notes building contracts and university projects many of which are published for the first time provide an expanded understanding of Koenig and additional context for his architectural achievements An examination of Koenig's Case Study Houses shows how his often single minded and pragmatic approach to domestic architecture recognized the advantages of production housing and presciently embraced sustainable ecologically responsible design A new account of the Chemehuevi housing project in Havasu Lake California demonstrates the special role that learning and teaching played in the development of his architecture Over his fifty year career Koenig not only designed iconic houses but also directed their restoration and curated their legacy ensuring that his work could be seen and appreciated by present and future admirers of midcentury Los Angeles Middletown, America Gail Sheehy, 2003-09-02

The single event that we know as 9/11 is over but the shock waves continue to radiate outward generated by orange alerts terrorism lockdowns and the shrinking of personal liberties we once took for granted The stories in this book of real people faced with extraordinary trauma and gradually transcending it are the best antidote to our fears Middletown America is a book of hope All Americans were hit with some degree of trauma on September 11 2001 but no place was hit harder than

Middletown New Jersey Gail Sheehy spent the better part of two years walking the journey from grief toward renewal with fifty members of the community that lost more people in the World Trade Center than any other outside New York City Her subjects are the women men and children who remained after the devastation and who are putting their lives back together Sheehy tells the story of four widowed moms from New Jersey who started out scarcely knowing the difference between the House and the Senate yet turned their sorrow and anger into action and became formidable witnesses to the failures of the country's leadership to connect the dots before September 11 Sheehy follows the four moms as they ght White House attempts to thwart the independent commission investigating 9 11 and expose efforts at a cover up What would become of the young wives carrying children their husbands would never see wives who had watched their dreams literally go up in smoke in that amphitheater of death across the river Amazingly each nds her own door to the light Here too is the story of the widow and widower who met in the waiting room of a mental health agency and brought each other back from the brink of despair across a bridge of love Sheehy also reveals how bereft mothers who will never have another son or daughter found reasons to recommit to life And she follows in the footsteps of the robbed children documenting the incredible resilience of four year olds the anger of teenagers the courage of sisters and brothers Sheehy follows survivors who escaped the burning towers only to nd themselves trapped inside a tower of inner torment from which it took love family and faith to free themselves She is taken into the con dence of the night crew at Ground Zero police of cers who worked in that pit for eight months straight and then faced the returning home phenomenon She recounts the confessions of religious leaders who struggled to explain the inexplicable to their ocks Mental health professionals con de in her as do corporate chiefs educators friends and neigh bors town of cials and volunteers who rose to the occasion and committed themselves to healing their wounded community As a journalist who conducted more than nine hundred interviews Gail Sheehy is an impeccable researcher As a writer with a novelistic gift she weaves the individual stories into a compelling narrative Middletown America illuminates every stage of a tumultuous passage from shock passivity and panic attacks to rising anger and deep grieving and on to the secret romances and startling relapses the realignment of faith the return of a capacity to love and be loved and nally the commitment to constructing new lives
