Tropical Modern Raul A. Barreneche, 2003 Out with the cool in with the hot The author has traveled the globe to bring together a collection of luxurious modern homes designed by such luminaries as Oscar Niemeyer Gio Ponti Geoffrey Bawa and Isay Weinfeld The architects featured on these pages experiment with combining modern technology and exotic local materials to produce rich designs of teak metal stucco concrete and glass Spectacular swimming pools and breezy outdoor rooms figure prominently green eco conscious features are a seamless response to the tropical settings of many of the featured houses This is a sophisticated survey of modern homes that embrace the laid back tropical lifestyle with open air rooms shady courtyards sunny patios and cool stucco walls The combination of modern architectural forms and tropical settings is sure to appeal to any reader who has imagined escaping to a vacation hideaway in the sun Tropical Modern brings that dream to life Book jacket

Sacred Modernity Tariq Jazeel, 2013-07-18 This book explores the relationships between nature and environment and the contested politics of nationhood in contemporary Sri Lanka

Architecture and Nationalism in Sri Lanka Anoma Pieris, 2013 The role of the home the domestic sphere and the intimate ethno cultural identities that are cultivated within it are critical to understanding the polemical constructions of country and city tradition and modernity and regionalism and cosmopolitanism The home is fundamental to ideas of the homeland that give nationalism its imaginative form and its political trajectory This book explores positions that are vital to ideas of national belonging through the history of colonial bourgeois self fashioning and post colonial identity construction in Sri Lanka The country remains central to related architectural discourses due to its emergence as a critical site for regional architecture post independence Suggesting patterns of indigenous accommodation and resistance that are expressed through built form the book argues that the nation grows as an extension of an indigenous private sphere ostensibly uncontaminated by colonial influences domesticating institutions and appropriating rural geographies in the pursuit of its hegemonic ideals This ambitious comprehensive wide ranging book presents an abundance of new and original material and many imaginative insights into the history of architecture and nationalism from the mid nineteenth century to the present day

Flow Penny Sparke, Patricia Brown, Patricia Lara-Betancourt, Gini Lee, Mark Taylor, 2018-07-12 Flow combines cutting edge scholarship with practitioner perspectives to address the concept of flow and how it connects interiors landscapes and buildings expanding on traditional notions of architectural prominence Contributors explore the transitional and intermediary relationships between inside outside Through a range of case studies authors extend the notion of flow beyond the western industrialised world and embrace a wider geography while engaging with the specificity of climate and place

Accompanied by stunning colour illustration and photography Flow brings together historical theoretical and practice based approaches to consider themes of nature mobility continuity and frames Cool-water Carbonates H. M. Pedley, Gabriele Carannante, 2006 During the past decade work on cool water carbonates has expanded to become a mainstream research area Studies on modern and Quaternary deposits will continue to be important however there is increasing momentum towards unravelling sediment processes biota sediment interactions and diagenetic products in Cenozoic and older cool water carbonates Many contributions in this book document Cenozoic and Quaternary carbonates from landlocked microtidal water bodies These carbonates display important differences in biota and fabric distributions when compared with world ocean examples Consequently the scientific community is now better placed to reinterpret pre Tertiary carbonates where there is a suspicion that they have developed under microtidal conditions Some papers in the book provide new approaches to interpreting environmental change within macrotidal regimes and others lay firm foundations for future cool water carbonate diagenetic research The aim of the book is to illustrate recent international contributions to cool water carbonates research with an emphasis on Neogene and Recent case studies Contributions are divided into three sections microtidal carbonates from the Mediterranean realm macrotidal examples from New Zealand Australia and Mexico and early diagenetic fabrics
