Truth Be Told New Collected Premortems:

Acting My Age Thomas Farber, 2021-03-31 Elegant exuberant and idiosyncratic Acting My Age is a memoir and meditation by one of America's most playful and inventive writers. In the words of Mary Mackey The Jaguars That Prowl Our Dreams in Acting My Age Thomas Farber gives us an unflinching luminous cleverly conceived meditation on his own mortality as well as on the extinction of the coral reefs snow leopards dolphins and ultimately the human species. Couching his observations in a series of short interconnected almost epigrammatic essays that read like prose poems Farber creates a narrative style reminiscent of Joyce and Melville oceanic in depth and all encompassing in range. Gerald Fleming The Choreographer calls Acting My Age a praise song an exultation in the beauties and brutalities of being human. Though Thomas Farber is wide eyed at the miracle of our existence his prose details both the collapse of species and ultimate trajectory of our aging bodies. This polymathic dive into a writer's remaining time into the life of the earth the sea and meaning itself is no mere memoir but an elegant instructive page after page of language love. Robert Roper Nabokov in America On the Road to Lolita adds Tom Farber is always good company and his late writings are more and more indispensable full of comfort for the perplexed rich in learning humorous masculine and tender evoking large sensations and vast views a reader thinks of Montaigne Whitman and other of the great truth tellers modest of tone intimate in approach friends bringing deep gifts.
