Truthful Action Explorations In Practical Theology:

Truthful Action Duncan B. Forrester, 2000-12-01 A ground breaking contribution to current debates within Practical Theology and to thinking about its future Professor Forrester argues that the boundaries of Practical Theology must be extended and that it must be both seriously theological and also engaged in sincere dialogue with other disciplines the Church and society He considers especially ministerial formation and Public Theology as areas where Practical Theology has an important contribution to make and presents case studies looking at the practical implications of different approaches

Practical Theology Mark J. Cartledge, 2012-04-04 Mark Cartledge's book is unique in integrating charismatic and empirical perspectives in practical theology It exemplifies both qualitative and quantitative methods of research and suggests a way forward for the emerging field of charismatic theology In part one Cartledge offers a proposal for the development of a charismatic practical theology He surveys the different models of the interaction of practical theology and social sciences and defends one that is consistent with charismatic spirituality The section also explores how charismatic spirituality affects theories of truth and knowledge by making testimony an integrating center before concluding with a clear explanation of the methods of research employed Part two progresses into six empirical studies on charismatic worship glossolalia and postmodernity women and prophetic activity the Toronto Blessing healing and socialization Each chapter of this important book ends with a methodological reflection and suggestions from renewed theological praxis enforcing the values of such methods of study for a clearer understanding of charismatic Christianity

The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Practical Theology Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, 2014-01-07 Through a series of essays contributed by leading experts in the field The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Practical Theology presents an introduction to practical theology as a major area of Christian study and practice including an overview of its key developments themes methods and future directions The first comprehensive reference work to provide a survey description and analysis of practical theology as an area of study A range of leading scholars in the field provide original contributions on the major areas issues and figures in practical theology Reviews an extensive range of methods for studying theology in practice along with sub disciplines in theological education such as pastoral care and preaching Covers developments in the discipline in a range of global contexts and distinct Christian traditions Shows how practical theology is relevant to everyday life

The Mediation of the Spirit Mark J. Cartledge, 2015-07-08 A noteworthy theology of the Holy Spirit that challenges current scholarship in the field How might a distinctively Pentecostal and charismatic theological perspective inform and enrich the discourse of academic practical theology In order to address that question Mark Cartledge in this book probes the relationship between Scripture experience and the Holy Spirit by means of the concept of mediation that is how the divine is experienced in the world An expert in both Pentecostal theology and practical theology Cartledge offers a unique intervention into practical theology through the lens of the Holy Spirit He presents an original reading of Pentecost and the Spirit reception texts in the book of Acts and engages with current literature in both Pentecostal studies and practical theology Further Cartledge places his whole discussion within a broader Protestant theological framework and he interrogates an existing congregational study to provide a real life example of theological intervention Teaching Theology in a Technological Age Doru Costache, James R.

Harrison, 2015-11-25 The iGeneration has learned to adapt rapidly to technological change Tech savvy students multi task with consummate ease accessing email on smart phones researching assignments on tablets reading a book on Kindle while drinking a flat white and listening to iTunes in the background How does the tertiary educational curriculum meet the learning needs of students whose attention transitions rapidly between mediums and messages The complexity and pace of modern technological change has left the theological educational sector gasping as it struggles to devise pedagogically engaging online distance learning materials in traditional disciplines and teach units with significant relational and pastoral components The technological benefits are vast the instant availability of information unprecedented and the opportunities to provide theological education to groups marginalised by the tyranny of distance and time enormous How should the theological sector address these challenges and opportunities Although the benefits are massive the media is replete with stories of the casualties of technological change including cyber bullying internet predators the psychic damage from trolls addiction to gaming and issues of body image among others How should the theological sector drawing upon its scriptural and teaching heritage come to grips with the deficits spawned by the technological revolution What is the theological pastoral social and pedagogic responsibility of theology teachers in nurturing this new generation Teaching Theology in a Technological Age draws together in an inspiring volume a series of cutting edge essays from Australian New Zealand and South African scholars on the learning and teaching of theology in a digital age Let Your Voice Be Heard Joan Hebert

Reisinger, 2012-10-08 People are moving to the margins of the Catholic Church As one dialogue partner states I left the Church to beat the rush Yet another remarks I just wonder I have to ask who s on the margins I m not sure Let Your Voice Be Heard details original practical theology research that endeavors to understand the dynamics on the margins of the Roman Catholic Church in dialogue with fifty dialogue partners from across the United States Practical theology the theology of marginality of Jung Young Lee reciprocal ethnography and the communication theory of Mikhail Bakhtin join in a cross disciplinary dialogue In conversation with dialogue partners Joan Hebert Reisinger seeks the reasons why Catholics over the age of twenty one who were once active and involved in the Catholic Church find themselves on the margins of the Church and how they understand their own marginality The dialogue partners speak of new ways of being Church emerging on the margins This emerging Church is marked by inclusive relationships that include dialogue that does not seek agreement or consensus a critical and thoughtful recalling of memories and narratives of the Catholic faith tradition and appropriation of these in new and creative ways Pathways to the Public Square International Academy of Practical Theology.

Meeting, 2005 This volume represents the proceedings of the 2003 meeting of the International Academy of Practical Theology which was held in Manchester UK on the theme of public theology Featuring over twenty papers from some of the world s leading practical theologians Pathways to the Public Square offers a wide variety of perspectives on the relationship between theology and politics education law culture and economics They include subjects as diverse as the role of religion in the constitution of the European Union theological themes in popular music Roman Catholic Muslim dialogue in the U S A and the spirituality of the public realm This book will be of interest to theological educators and students church leaders policy makers and all those interested in the relationship between religion and public life Catholic Social Justice Philomena Cullen, Bernard Hoose, Gerard Mannion, 2007 An examination of the social issues facing the church today God in Society William Storrar, Peter Donald, 2003 A range of ecumenical thinkers explore the rich variety of ways in which Christians and churches are doing social theology in Scotland in the 21st century SCE V13/2:Articles Esther Reed, 2000 Poverty, Suffering and HIV-AIDS International Academy of Practical Theology. Meeting, 2003 Journal of Theology for Southern Africa , 2000 Children of God Angela Shier-Jones, 2007 Children and childhood are among the most neglected subjects of Christian theology What does it mean to be a child of God if the examples of childhood in Scripture and the Christian tradition are taken seriously and placed in dialogue with twenty first century science sociology and morality This collection of essays draws together a wealth of different perspectives on a much neglected but vital subject of theology and Christian living Working Against the Grain Anthony Reddie, 2008 Contains essays that outline a different vision for a liberative model of Christianity built upon the insights of Black Theology This book argues that a re imagined Black theology can enable Christianity in particular and Black Christian faith in general to recapture the radical intent of this globalized religious framework The Book Review Digest , 2003 Business, Family, and Religion Yahya Wijaya, 2002 Studies in various disciplines have discussed the influence of political economy and culture on the ethnic Chinese business Focusing on the Chinese Indonesian business community this book is intended as a contribution to the discussion from the point of view of theology Although theological discussions on economic life have been far reaching few attempts have been made to give a theological perspective specifically on the ethnic Chinese business practices This book aims to offer a public theology concerned with particular issues related to the Chinese Indonesian business context The focus here is directed particularly to the central position of the family which characterizes the ethnic Chinese religious business political and social lives It is argued that a theological approach built upon the concept of the family of God would not only make sense but also have value for the ethnic Chinese enabling reflection on their political economic position and economic cultural virtues Forrester on Christian Ethics and Practical Theology Duncan B. Forrester, 2010 Bringing together articles and chapters from his considerable work in theological ethics India and the social order Duncan Forrester incorporates new writing and introductions to each thematic section to guide readers through this invaluable resource This book offers stimulating studies in three related areas Indian Christianity with particular attention to the caste system contemporary Christian theological ethics and the distinctive and challenging theological approach that Forrester has developed in relation to public issues
