Archeology of Desire Miriam Sagan, 2001 Sagan's richly sensual writing blends elements of mature insight with deeply felt experience These are poems of an examined life with moments of Zen clarity throughout It is in fact the clarity that drives these poems The language is careful but deliberate exquisitely crafted and emotionally moving One gets the sense that her desire to write poetry comes from the desire to give permanent voice to something in the experience of life to find ourselves spoken for in art gives dignity to our pain our anger our lust and our losses This is what poetry is about When Miriam Sagan casts her imaginative eye on something it stares back Jeanie C Williams Southwest Book Views Gossip Miriam Sagan,2007 Cultural Writing Essays GOSSIP is a collection of personal essays that covers themes from a woman's life ranging from love magic to marriage old boyfriends to solitude At the age of fifty the author learns to shoot a gun for the first time and confront fear There are essays here on on language and meaning including ethical wills blessings and credos And memoirs that chart a course including young widowhood raising a child a re union with a high school boyfriend re marriage and ventures into middle age As Laurie Wagner says Sagan is writer whose obsessive ability to observe the ordinary details of domestic life the nuance of motherhood marriage and friendship allow her to lift the veil on the mundane the things we take for granted to reveal their more sacred properties Reading these stories reminded me that I don't have to go far to find beauty and magic in my life that it might be waiting for me in a simple bowl of mole Malay Images Asmah Haji Omar,2005 Searching for a Mustard Seed Miriam Sagan,2003 Poet Miriam Sagan's intimate poignant comical memoir begins with the death of her husband a thirty six year old Zen Priest She approaches grief in typical baby boomer fashion going to Korea attending weightlifting classes and searching for new lovers She ultimately finds that she is not alone and that she is surrounded with continuity community and all the beauty that is life A History of Indian Literature in English Arvind Krishna Mehrotra,2003 Annotation This volume surveys 200 years of Indian literature in English Written by Indian scholars and critics many of the 24 contributions examine the work of individual authors such as Rabindranath Tagore R K Narayan and Salman Rushdie Others consider a particular genre such as post independence poetry or drama The volume is illustrated with b/w photographs of writers along with drawings and popular prints Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 Inadvertent Altar Miriam Sagan,2000 Poetry Miriam Sagan's poetry is forced by urgency memory and awareness rise to the surface in gasps fragments and fleeting observations The poems observe passing moments in passionate detail without trying to explain them or make sense of them The poems know that much is beyond explanation they recognize that only the individual can find coherence and even then only briefly in the flux of events and never with absolute certainty But to feel the impact of the passing moments that is another matter to be truly alive is to sense to the depths of one's being the impact of what we call ordinary whether joyous or painful or whatever comes in between There are moments in Miriam Sagan's poems approaching despair and yet there remains always the possibility of ecstatic illumination even in or perhaps especially in the most common observations R W French Book Talk ,1994 Literary History: Towards a Global Perspective Anders Pettersson,Gunilla Lindberg-Wada,Margareta Pettersson,Stefan Helgesson,2011-12-22 Literary History Towards a Global Perspective is a research project funded by the Swedish Research Council Vetenskapsr det Initiated in 1996 and launched in 1999 it aims at finding suitable methods and approaches for studying and analysing literature globally emphasizing the comparative and intercultural aspect Even though we nowadays have fast and easy access to any kind of information on literature and literary history we encounter more than ever the difficulty of finding a credible overall perspective on world literary history Until today literary cultures and traditions have usually been studied separately each field using its own principles and methods Even the conceptual basis itself varies from section to section and the genre concepts employed are not mutually compatible As a consequence it is very difficult if not impossible for the interested layperson as well as for the professional student to gain a clear and fair perspective both on the literary traditions of other peoples and on one's own traditions The project can be considered as a contribution to gradually removing this problem and helping to gain a better understanding of literature and literary history by means of a concerted empirical research and deeper conceptual reflection The contributions to the four volumes are written in English by specialists from a large number of disciplines primarily from the fields of comparative literature Oriental studies and African studies in Sweden All of the literary texts discussed in the articles are in the original language Each one of the four volumes is devoted to a special research topic
