libraries E STREAMS Dying is a social as well as physiological phenomenon Each society characterizes and consequently treats death and dying in its own individual ways ways that differ markedly These particular patterns of death and dying engender modal cultural responses and such institutionalized behavior has familiar economical educational religious and political implications The Handbook of Death and Dying takes stock of the vast literature in the field of thanatology arranging and synthesizing what has been an unwieldy body of knowledge into a concise yet comprehensive reference work This two volume handbook will provide direction and momentum to the study of death related behavior for many years to come Key Features More than 100 contributors representing authoritative expertise in a diverse array of disciplines Anthropology Family Studies History Law Medicine Mortuary Science Philosophy Psychology Social work Sociology Theology A distinguished editorial board of leading scholars and researchers in the field More than 100 definitive essays covering almost every dimension of death related behavior Comprehensive and inclusive exploring concepts and social patterns within the larger topical concern Journal article length essays that address topics with appropriate detail Multidisciplinary and cross cultural coverage EDITORIAL BOARD Clifton D Bryant Editor in Chief Patty M Bryant Managing Editor Charles K Edgley Associate Editor Michael R Leming Associate Editor Dennis L Peck Associate Editor Kent L Sandstrom Associate Editor Watson F Rogers II Assistant Editor Story as History - History as Story Samuel Byrskog,2022-03-16 Please note that this title is only available to customers in the USA Canada and Mexico NO salesrights for Rest of World Samuel Byrskog employs models from the interdisciplinary field of oral history as presented by Paul Thompson coupled with insights from cultural anthropology in order to examine the interaction between the present and the past as the gospel tradition evolved The ancient Greek and Roman historians with their use of eyewitness testimony as sources to the past and as central elements in interpretive and narrativizing processes of the present serve as the basis for unraveling culture specific patterns of oral history and thus for conceptualizing similar aspects during the development of the gospel tradition Eyewitness testimonies played a central but varying role in early Christianity They were transmitted in the matrix of discipleship where verbal and behavioral traditions were passed on through acts of mimesis The folkloristic notion of re oralization explains how oral accounts regularly interacted with written texts indicating a vivid and engaged relationship to the past as well as the semantic significance of oral communication and performance Factual truth was essential but inseparable from interpreted truth during the course of investigation transmission and composition The gospel tradition developed through a subtle interaction between the unique historic events of the past and the various circumstances of the present The narrative and historical dimensions of a text cannot be separated because the semantic codes of a text are often located in the culture and not in the text itself The gospels are therefore the synthesis of history and story intertwining the horizons of the past and of the present in their own right Understanding Abnormal Behavior.
