

Who Uses Managed Care Contracts?

Insurance companies

use managed care contracts to create defined networks of providers that offer services at negotiated rates.

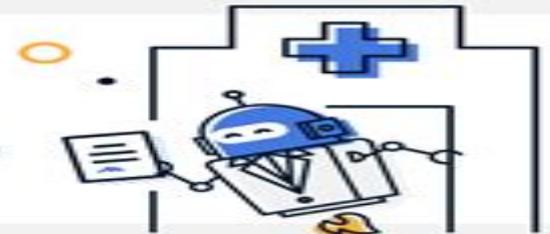

Employers

use managed care contracts with health insurance providers to cover the costs of their employee's health care needs.

Providers,

such as physicians and hospitals, benefit from managed care contracts as they provide stability in reimbursement rates and payment models, reducing the risk of running a practice or hospital.

Vendors

like pharmacies, medical supply stores, and laboratories may also be included in managed care contracts.

Patients

can also benefit from managed care contracts as they help ensure access to quality health care while controlling costs.
