Understanding Religious Life:

Understanding Religious Life Frederick J. Streng, 1985 This text uses two basic themes to enhance student understanding 1 the search for an understanding of religious life as an ongoing process and 2 the need for recognizing a variety of ultimate realities when studying religious pluralism

Exploring the Religious Life Rodney Stark, 2004-04 In his first essay Stark addresses the carelessness with which scholars use the term religion and the conviction that the belief in divinity evolved from the practice of magic in primitive cultures In subsequent chapters he challenges the widespread attitude among social scientists that religion is nothing more than a mask for material realities and examines the effectiveness of religious doctrines in attracting converts and influencing individuals uncovers the surprising prevalence of upper class asceticism in medieval Christianity and explores the relationship between gender piety and criminal activity Divine revelation is a central aspect of many religions and Stark next applies empirical research to the phenomenon to assess its meaning in Judaism Christianity Islam and Mormonism He then turns to the confusion between faith and practice in debates over the secularization of the developed world before investigating the validity of the classic proposition within the social sciences that religion functions to sustain the moral order He does so examining the correlation between criminal behavior and depth of religious belief Stark concludes with an essay on the ingenious methods he uses to unearth data about the popularity of new religions in California and northern Europe the decline of Christian Science in America the spread of Christianity in the Roman world and the execution patterns during the antiwitchcraft frenzy of Enlightenment Europe

Talking about God Daniel F. Polish, 2007 Challenge Yourself to Delve into a Deeper Interfaith Dialogue To wrestle with the ideas these thinkers present is to find ourselves challenged to look at our own religious lives in new ways and to appreciate the spiritual endeavors of others whatever form their religious expression may take To engage with these thinkers can leave us enlarged in our perception of human religiousness and deepened in our appreciation of it from the Conclusion The modern age of religion is characterized by dialogue Jews and Christians together explore the realities and meaning of living in proximity to one another Yet for all the good will and sincerity of intention too often such discussions fail to progress beyond well intentioned pleasantries to the challenging content that can truly deepen our understanding of each other This fascinating and accessible introduction to the theologies of four modern religious thinkers will help you break through the superficial generalities to plumb the depths of religious differences and embrace the commonalities Examining the lives and works of S ren Kierkegaard Martin Buber Paul Tillich and Abraham Joshua Heschel through the lens of their treatment of the Bible and the biblical patriarch Abraham you will take part in a discussion of the very phenomenon of religion and what part it plays in living a fully engaged human life

Understanding Religious Life Frederick J. Streng, 2003

Understanding Religious Conversion Dong Young Kim, 2012-07-20 Understanding Religious Conversion begins with emphasis on the value of respecting religious theological interpretations of conversion while coordinating social scientific studies of how personal social and cultural issues are relevant to the human transformational process It encourages us to bring together the perspectives of psychology sociology anthropology and religious studies into critical and mutually informing conversation for establishing a richer and more accurate perception of the complex phenomenon of religious conversion The case of St Augustine s conversion experience superbly illustrates the complicated and multidimensional process of religious change By critically extending the contributions of the literature within Lewis Rambo s interdisciplinary framework Dong Young Kim presents a more integrated picture of how personal social cultural and religious theological components interact with one another in the process of Augustine s conversion In doing so he has struggled with how to relocate more effectively and practically the conversion narrative of Augustine within the context of pastoral care and ministry and the field of the academy in order to facilitate a better understanding of the conversion stories of the church members as well as to enhance the experiences of religious conversion within the Christian community

Understanding Religious Experience Paul K. Moser,2019-12-05 Offers a new approach to religious experience and the kind of evidence it provides Understanding Religious Experience will benefit those interested in the nature of religion and can be used in relevant courses in religious studies philosophy theology Biblical studies and the history of religion

The Sound of Liberating Truth Paul Ingram,Sallie B. King,2013-10-23 Offers essays and dialogues by well known Buddhist and Christian scholars on topics that were of primary interest to Frederick J Streng in whose honour the volume was created Topics include interreligious dialogue ultimate reality nature and ecology social and political issues of liberation and ultimate transformation or liberation
