War Voices:

Competing Voices from the Russian Revolution Michael C. Hickey, 2010-12-21 This new collection of documents helps students understand the complex texture of Russian public rhetoric and popular debate during World War I and the 1917 Revolution How better to understand history than through the words of those who lived it Competing Voices from the Russian Revolution Fighting Words presents documents that underscore the extraordinary richness of public discussion about key events and issues during the 1917 Russian Revolution one of the pivotal events in modern history Carefully edited and annotated the documents help clarify the issues while revealing the broad range of ways in which Russians understood the events unfolding around them Focusing on public rhetoric and debate in Russia from the outbreak of World War I in 1914 through the dissolution of the Constituent Assembly in January 1918 the documents present the views not only of key political figures but also of ordinary men and women mothers soldiers factory workers peasants students businesspeople and educated professionals

United States and Asia at War: A Cultural Approach Philip West, Steven I. Levine, Jackie Hiltz, 2015-06-03 This text examines the Pacific War the Korean War and the Vietnam War from the perspective of those who fought the wars and lived through them The relationship between history and memory informs the book and each war is relocated in the historical and cultural experiences of Asian countries

Cinema Wars Douglas M. Kellner, 2011-09-13 Cinema Wars explores the intersection of film politics and US culture and society through a bold critical analysis of the films TV shows and documentaries produced in the early 2000s Offers a thought provoking depiction of Hollywood film as a contested terrain between conservative and liberal forces Films and documentaries discussed include Black Hawk Down The Dark Knight Star Wars Syriana WALL E Fahrenheit 9 11 and other Michael Moore documentaries amongst others Explores how some films in this era supported the Bush Cheney regime while others criticized the administration openly or otherwise Investigates Hollywood's treatment of a range of hot topics from terrorism and environmental crisis to the Iraq war and the culture wars of the 2000s Shows how Hollywood film in the 2000s brought to life a vibrant array of social protest and helped create cultural conditions to elect Barack Obama

Women and Militant Wars Swati Parashar, 2014-03-05 This book explores women's militant activities in insurgent wars and seeks to understand what women do in wars In International Relations inter state conflict anti state armed insurgency and armed militancy are essentially seen as wars where collective violence against civilians and security forces is used to achieve political objectives Extending the notion of war as politics of injury to the armed militancy in Indian administered Kashmir and the Tamil armed insurgency in Sri Lanka this book explores how women participate in militant wars and how that politics not only shapes the gendered understandings of women's identities and bodies but is in turn shaped by them The case studies discussed in the book offer new comparative insight into two different and most prevalent forms of insurgent wars today religio political and ethno nationalist Empirical analyses of women's roles in the Sri Lankan Tamil militant group the LTTE and the logistical ideological support women provide to militant groups active in Indian administered Kashmir suggest that these insurgent wars have their own gender dynamics in recruitment and operational strategies Thus Women and Militant Wars provides an excellent insight into the gender politics of these insurgencies and women's roles and experiences within them This book will be of much interest to students and scholars of critical war and security studies feminist international relations gender studies terrorism and political violence South Asia studies and IR in general

Tell Me Lies David Miller, 2003-11-20 Did the US and UK governments lie about weapons of mass destruction to promote an attack on Iraq Did the media hold them to account or act as cheerleaders for war Tell Me Lies reveals the systematic propaganda used by both the US and UK governments to convince us of the threat from Iraq It shows how we were deliberately misled into a war that has resulted in a humanitarian disaster in Iraq and threatens to create further instability and resentment of the US and UK throughout the Middle East Written by some of the world's leading journalists and commentators it's a scathing indictment of the role of the mainstream media in legitimising government actions and undermining dissent Critics activists and journalists from both sides of the Atlantic explore alternatives such as the internet and Al Jazeera and provide analysis and guidance on resisting the media war Contributors include John Pilger Noam Chomsky Robert Fisk Edward Herman Mark Thomas Mark Steel and cartoonist Steve Bell amongst many others

War Voices Tony Curtis, 1995 War and its effects have been an enduring subject throughout the twenty five year writing career of Tony Curtis The resulting poetry might have been bleak but for the sensitivity with which Curtis handles the theme and the bravery and dignity in the face of barbarism which he finds underlying conflict Poems such as Soup shortlisted for the Observer Arvon Prize and The Death of Richard Beattie Seaman winner of the National Poetry Competition are a measure of Curtis's skill in addressing this difficult subject From Flanders to Bosnia via Russia and Suez India and Ireland Vietnam and the Cold War these War Voices speak of protest remembrance and commemoration Tony Curtis is Professor of Poetry at the University of Glamorgan where he directs an MPhil in Writing He has published 26 books including nine poetry collections A selection of his poetry has recently been translated and published in Armenia He is also the editor of several anthologies including After the First Death a volume of war writing 2007 Unforgettable Sacrifice

Hilary N. Green, 2025-02-25 2026 ASALH BOOK PRIZE FINALIST Rediscover the Civil War through the voices that refused to be silenced Unforgettable Sacrifice offers a groundbreaking exploration into the heart of African American memory of the Civil War challenging conventional narratives and revealing a rich history preserved through oral traditions and communal efforts Through extensive archival research and stories shared on the porches of African American families Hilary Green provides a detailed examination of how diverse Black communities across the United States have actively preserved and contested the memory of the Civil War from the nineteenth century to the present By rejecting the reduction of their experiences to mere footnotes in history African Americans have established a vibrant commemorative culture that respects the complexity of their ancestors' sacrifices and struggles From the rural landscapes of Black Pennsylvanians to the heart of emancipated communities in the South Green connects the narratives of those who not only fought on battlefields but also in the realms of memory and heritage ensuring their stories of resilience courage and patriotism are remembered Unforgettable Sacrifice brings to light the untold stories of ordinary African Americans who took extraordinary steps in remembrance and resistance By refusing to accept diluted narratives and lies they have ensured the legacy of the Civil War includes the end of slavery the valor of Black soldiers and civilians and the ongoing struggle for democracy and full citizenship This book is a testament to the enduring power of memory and the steadfast spirit of the African American community It is an indispensable addition to the libraries of scholars general readers and descendant communities alike offering new perspectives on the lasting impact of the Civil War on American identity and the persistent pursuit of justice and equality

Global politics in the information age Mark J. Lacy, Peter Wilkin, 2024-07-30 Global politics in the information age available in paperback for the first time presents a provocative and wide ranging introduction to the notion that information technologies are creating new formations of power control and resistance across the planet The essays ranging from the language used by the Bush administration to shape the war on terror the attempts to control the circulation of informational products the strategies of media management deployed to shape how the war in Iraq during 2003 was presented in the public sphere through to the attempts to brand economic globalisation and strategies of resistance developed by the anti globalisation movement unearth the new transformations that are unfolding in the twenty first century This collection of essays brings together academics working across the social sciences from International Relations Political Economy Sociology and Media Studies to provide the reader with a number of different perspectives on the way that flows of images capital ideologies and informational goods are creating global spaces of control and resistance The book seeks to rethink approaches to global politics that see information society as closing down spaces of resistance while at the same time exploring the new formations of power that informational society is making possible The book offers clearly explained theoretical insight into the debates that are shaping discussion on global politics and information society with case studies that will be of interest to the student seeking to make sense of the changes that are unfolding
