

Praise for Laura Firman's fiction

Watch Time Fly

...deeply amusing, a relaxed, sure-footed and very unified collection. It's fascinating to see how she tackles the same problems, both emotional and technical, from different angles. ... She is brilliant at constructing short story frames. A superb collection, by a writer who beautifully knows her own mind."
— PHILLIP LEBY, author of Bachelorhood

The Shadow Line

"A highly polished work, Firman has built this book the way an excellent craftsman would — one by one, story by story."
— Washington Post Book World

"She is graced with many talents, not the least of which is a sturdy, clean, supple style, crafted well enough in The Shadow Line to glide over the shoals of an intricate plot, ...compelling, fast-paced, and entertaining."
— Esse Monthly

"Firman... writes with impeccable taste and a cool precision that burns like dry ice."
— Publishers Weekly

The Glass House

"The Glass House has haunted me from the instant I closed it... a remarkable book, pure of vision, clean of language, and as deep as a clearwater pool."
— ROSSELLA BROWN

"All of Ms. Firman's short stories are the genuine article. They add up. They come together. They move or touch or jolt us at the end... It is a most impressive debut."
— ELIZABETH FORSTER HALEY,
Dallas Morning News

"Superior in every way... Firman's themes are fragile, but her... touch is certain, her language beautiful."
— People
