Slavery and Emancipation in Islamic East Africa Elisabeth McMahon, 2013-04-30 Examining the process of abolition on the island of Pemba off the East African coast in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries this book demonstrates the links between emancipation and the redefinition of honour among all classes of people on the island By examining the social vulnerability of ex slaves and the former slave owning elite caused by the abolition order of 1897 this study argues that moments of resistance on Pemba reflected an effort to mitigate vulnerability rather than resist the hegemonic power of elites or the colonial state As the meaning of the Swahili word heshima shifted from honour to respectability individuals reputations came under scrutiny and the Islamic kadhi and colonial courts became an integral location for interrogating reputations in the community This study illustrates the ways in which former slaves used piety reputation gossip education kinship and witchcraft to negotiate the gap between emancipation and local notions of belonging Social Memory, Silenced Voices, and Political Struggle Bissell, William Cunningham, Fouere, Marie-Aude, 2018-05-28 This volume focuses on the cultural memory and mediation of the 1964 Zanzibar revolution analyzing its continuing reverberations in everyday life The revolution constructed new conceptions of community and identity race and cultural belonging as well as instituting different ideals of nationhood citizenship sovereignty As the commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the revolution revealed the official versions of events have shifted significantly over time and the legacy of the uprising is still deeply contested In these debates the question of Zanzibari identity remains very much at stake Who exactly belongs in the islands and what historical processes brought them there What are the boundaries of the nation and who can claim to be an essential part of this imagined and embodied community Political belonging and power are closely intertwined with these issues of identity and history raising intense debates and divisions over precisely where Zanzibar should be situated within the national order of things in a postcolonial and interconnected world Attending to narratives that have been overlooked ignored or relegated to the margins the authors of these essays do not seek to simply define the revolution or to establish its ultimate meaning

Instead they seek to explore the continuing echoes and traces of the revolution fifty years on reflected in memories media and monuments Inspired by interdisciplinary perspectives from anthropology history cultural studies and geography these essays foreground critical debates about the revolution often conducted sotto voce and located well off the official stage attending to long silenced questions submerged doubts rumors and secrets or things that cannot be said Secessionism in African Politics Lotje de Vries, Pierre Englebort, Mareike Schomerus, 2018-08-20 Secessionism perseveres as a complex political phenomenon in Africa yet often a more in depth analysis is overshadowed by the aspirational simplicity of pursuing a new state Using historical and contemporary approaches this edited volume offers the most exhaustive collection of empirical studies of African secessionism to date The respected expert contributors put salient and lesser known cases into comparative perspective covering Biafra Katanga Eritrea and South Sudan alongside Barotseland Cabinda and the Comoros among others Suggesting that African secessionism can be understood through the categories of aspiration grievance performance and disenchantment the book s analytical framework promises to be a building block for future studies of the topic Telegram from Foreign Office Titled Zanzibar , Zanzibar's Political History Haroub Othman, 1993 The Encyclopedia of Political Revolutions Jack A. Goldstone, 2015-04-29 The Encyclopedia of Political Revolutions is an important reference work that describes revolutionary events that have affected and often changed the course of history Suitable for students and interested lay readers yet authoritative enough for scholars its 200 articles by leading scholars from around the world provide quick answers to specific questions as well as in depth treatment of events and trends accompanying revolutions Includes descriptions of specific revolutions important revolutionary figures and major revolutionary themes such as communism and socialism ideology and nationalism Illustrative material consists of photographs detailed maps and a timeline of revolutions Contemporary Issues in Swahili Ethnography Iain Walker, 2018-10-11 The term Swahili describes the Muslim peoples of the East African coast speakers of Kiswahili or closely related languages who have historically filled roles as middlemen and merchants the cosmopolitan products of a trading economy between Africa and the Indian Ocean world This collection brings together anthropologists working on the greater Swahili world and the issues it confronts dealing with societies from southern Somalia northern Mozambique and the Comoro Islands to Zanzibar and Mafia The authors discuss a range of contemporary issues such as the shifting roles of Islam on the mainland coast consumerism conservation memory and belonging in Zanzibar how a Muslim society deals with HIV AIDS social change development and political strategies in the Comoros and Swahili women in London The diversity of these themes reflects the diversity of the Swahili world itself despite a cohesive cultural identity built upon shared practices religious beliefs and language the challenges facing Swahili people are multiple and complex This book comprises articles originally published in the Journal of Eastern African Studies along with some new chapters , Zanzibar's Afro-Shirazi Party, 1957-1977 , 1978 From Promise to Practice Chandra Lekha Sriram, Karin Wermester, 2003 How
