Slected Poems:

Selected Poems Alfred Tennyson, 2007-12-06 Tennyson's poetry epitomizes the Victorian age for which he became a spokesman. His finest poems are often steeped in a sensuous melancholy as in Maud or are chivalric heroic and allegorical as in The Lady of Shalott and Morte d'Arthur. Selected Poems James Tate, 1991-06-14 The Pulitzer Prize winning collection of exquisite poems by a poet of mad wit and stunning anecdote. Tate is now in the fullness of his powers. Julian Moynahan author of Sisters and Brothers Selected Poems James Tate's award winning collection and his first British publication gathers work from nine previous books from the Lost Pilot which was a Yale Younger Poets selection in 1967 through his 1986 collection Reckoner. He is a most agile poet in a precarious world. Life is alarming and absurd but properly considered that absurdity reveals often with laughter the something else by which we live. The poems are about our world, our wrecked, vexed love for it. Tate has been described as a surrealist. If that is what he is, his surrealism issues in a vision of a world delivered back to itself by his unillusioned subversion and candor. This volume performs a valuable service by drawing together the best of Tate's work from many individual collections, some of them now quite rare. It allows us finally to take the measure of his genius: passionate, humane, funny, tragic, and always surprising and mind-delighting. Not unexpectedly, it confirms his standing as one of the finest voices of his generation. John Ashbery, Pulitzer Prize winning poet. He has the rare ability to be very, very funny on the page. The New York Times Book Review. Selected Poems, 1938-1968 John Berryman, 1972

Selected Poems Kenneth Rexroth, 1984 Poems deal with love, sensuality, nature, the seasons, death, justice, music, war, and travel. Selected Poems Robert Duncan, 1997 Berthoff's selections are so attuned to the essentials of Duncan's writing that even those familiar with the whole body of Duncan's work will become more sensitized to his recurring imagery and consistency of thought pattern throughout this collection. Publishers Weekly. New Selected Poems Mark Strand, 2007 More than twenty-five years after the appearance of his first Selected Poems, we at last have a magnificent new gathering of Mark Strand's work, one that spans and celebrates his entire remarkable career to date. From Sleeping with One Eye Open 1964 through the wonderful middle work that includes The Continuous Life 1990 and crowned by the Pulitzer Prize winning Blizzard of One 1998 and his most recent collection Man and Camel 2006, this book makes a crucial selection of Strand's always beautiful and by turns humorous and melancholy poems. Over the decades, Strand's identity as a poet has remained firm: he is existential, playful, mysterious, a poet of simple words and sentences that somehow add up to powerful, universal experiences. With his incantatory language and radiant, commanding imagery, he creates mythic scenes and vistas that, however otherworldly, are ultimately of this earth; their underlying subject, the pain and pleasure of being mortal. Here is an essential compilation from one of the most beloved and honored American poets at work today, without which no modern poetry collection is complete. Selected Poems Harvey Shapiro, 1997-09-26 Harvey Shapiro's precise, understated lyrics have garnered praise in the US, the UK, and in Israel. His early poems hailed by The Nation as some of the best poems of our generation were notable in part because they gave new form to Jewish immigrant experience This collection presents the best work from Shapiro s early books including the classic poems Battle Report on World War II and National Cold Storage Company on the death of John Kennedy and a wealth of new poems more sensual but no less wry Shapiro sees life itself as a state of exile and writes of the spaces where for a moment the light holds New Selected Poems, 1970-1985 Jerome Rothenberg,1986 Acclaimed poet and translator editor of such ground breaking journals and anthologies as Alcheringa and Technicians of the Sacred pioneer in the fields of performance poetry and ethnopoeitics Jerome Rothenberg is a literary radical and a major force in American poetry Gathered here in his New Selected Poems 1970 1985 are pivotal poems from four previous New Directions collections Poland 1931 1974 A Seneca Journal 1978 Vienna Blood 1980 and That Dada Strain 1983 Rothenberg describes his new selection as an attempt to isolate in the work of the last fifteen years and a little more the thread of a single long poem or sequence in which figures and voice s without context in the earlier books find a location and a shape Open ended explorative and exuberantly and irreverently epic the sequence ends with two new and previously uncollected poems 15 Flower World Variations and Visions of Jesus Selected Poems (1938-1958) Delmore Schwartz,1967 Every point of view every kind of knowledge and every kind of experience is limited and ignorant nevertheless so far as I know this volume seems to me to be as representative as it could be Delmore Schwartz Selected Poems of Rita Dove Rita Dove,1993-09-28 Here in one volume is a selection of the extraordinary poems of Rita Dove who as the nation s Poet Laureate from 1993 to 1995 brought poetry into the lives of millions of people Along with a new introduction and poem Selected Poems comprises Dove s collections The Yellow House on the Corner which includes a group of poems devoted to the themes of slavery and freedom Museum intimate ruminations on home and the world and finally Thomas and Beulah winner of the Pulitzer Prize in 1987 a verse cycle loosely based on her grandparents lives Precisely yet intensely felt resonant with the voices of ordinary people Rita Dove s Selected Poems is marked by lyric intensity and compassionate storytelling
