

An illustration of a young child with dark skin and curly hair, wearing a yellow long-sleeved shirt and pants, sleeping peacefully in a bed. The child is lying on their side, hugging a brown teddy bear. The bed has a blue blanket and a pink pillow. The room is dimly lit, with a nightstand and a lamp visible on the left. The overall color palette is soft and calming, with shades of blue, yellow, and pink.

Sleep Song:

A Book of Lullabies, 1925      Sensibility and English Song Stephen Banfield, 1985 This highly acclaimed study of English song is the first detailed account of an unusually fruitful interrelationship between English music and English poetry. The period covered is known as the English Musical Renaissance and runs from the last years of the nineteenth century to the Second World War. Stephen Banfield traces the late flowering of Romantic impulses in solo song during these years, surveying it from critical, analytical, and historical angles. He plots the growth of the English stylistic sensibility in song in the decades leading up to the First World War, discusses in detail the plateau it reached between the wars, particularly in the 1920s, and shows how and why it declined as other musical concerns took the field. Poets whose verse was set to music most frequently, including Housman, Hardy, de la Mare, and Yeats, are treated at length, as are pre-eminent song composers such as Butterworth, Finzi, Gurney, Ireland, Quilter, Somervell, Stanford, Vaughan Williams, and Warlock. In all, more than fifty composers are discussed, and numerous individual songs. In the final section of the book, besides providing an extensive bibliography, Dr Banfield catalogues over 5,000 songs, giving dates of composition and publication and much other detail listed by composer. This comprehensive survey will prove an invaluable reference guide to all students of the subject.      The Beacon Song Collection, Number Two, 1900      The Silver Song Series for Supplementary Use: Songs for one and two voices for the fourth or fifth grades, 1899      Books of Songs: Higher book of songs Robert Foresman, 1928      Exploring English Lyrics Cheri Montgomery, Allen Henderson, 2024-05-13 Exploring English Lyrics is the most unified collection of English art texts with transcriptions available, containing 790 unique art song selections with pronunciation as defined by the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA). It is an invaluable resource for both the native-speaking singer and singers with no previous exposure to the English language. These lyrics span nearly 500 years of art song history, with texts set by more than 129 composers. Diverse segments of British, American, African American, Canadian, Scottish, Irish, and Australian cultures are represented. The scope of the lyrics selected includes works appropriate for beginners, as well as those being performed by the world's most prominent professional singers. Texts of frequently performed songs from the Royal Conservatory of Music Development Program, adjudications, new composers' collected works, as well as lyrics from major anthologies such as Joan Boytim's First Book series, are included. Detailed indications for selections that require a particular dialect or character voice; pronunciation are provided. Helpful indices enable the reader to search by composer, song cycle, first line, or song title. References to settings of texts by multiple composers are indicated throughout the book. The book assists the teacher with repertoire selections while giving the student an accurate and elegant pronunciation that is ideal for intelligibility and optimal singing technique. Knowledge of the phonetic system and detailed pronunciation of new and standard repertoire are readily accessible with this text.      *Catalogue of (printed) music. Music.
