Poeticality Jeffrey Sacks, 2026-02-03 Will you not memorize a little poetry to halt the slaughter the Palestinian poet Mahmoud Darwish wrote Darwish's poetic statement points to world evacuating and genocidal violences in a triangulation of Palestine Iraq and the American settler state as his language recalls us to a sonority in utterance and acts of refusal in collective form Through readings of Arabic and Arab poetry art translation and philosophy Jeffrey Sacks illumines an indetermined non accumulative non propertied manner of lingual doing across post Ottoman topographies and states and in excess of any single language where language is a practice in sociality the social is indistinct from the ontological and being is a poetic mode what this book calls poeticity

Poeticality studies the Lebanese American poet and painter Etel Adnan the Iraqi poet and translator Kh lid al Ma l philosophers in the Arabic peripatetic tradition and writings of Karl Marx Paul Celan Walter Benjamin and others to demonstrate a sense of form wholly other than what is advanced in self determined social existence linguistic self understanding and philosophical self representation a manner of address and a social pose which Sacks summarizes under the heading settler life Settler life a form of life a practice of reading and an asymmetric distribution of social destruction asserts itself as a generalized and regulating attack upon Black and Indigenous life and upon all forms of nonwhite non Christian non heteronormative existence Everything is in the language we use the Oglala Lakota poet Layli Long Soldier has written This book learning from Long Soldier's observation and with Darwish's sense of the poetic affirms the demand for Indigenous sovereignty in Palestine in Turtle Island and elsewhere a demand which through the collective acts occasioned in it decomposes and deposes all sovereign forms and all stately legalities in refusal of settler life
