Tangled Memories:

Tangled Memories Marita Sturken, 1997-02-28 Analyzing the ways U S culture has been formed and transformed in the 80s and 90s by its response to the Vietnam War and the AIDS epidemic Marita Sturken argues that each has disrupted our conventional notions of community nation consensus and American culture She examines the relationship of camera images to the production of cultural memory the mixing of fantasy and reenactment in memory the role of trauma and survivors in creating cultural comfort and how discourses of healing can smooth over the tensions of political events Sturken s discussion encompasses a brilliant comparison of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial and the AIDS Quilt her profound reading of the Memorial as a national wailing wall one whose emphasis on the veterans and war dead has allowed the discourse of heroes sacrifice and honor to resurface at the same time that it is an implicit condemnation of war is particularly compelling The book also includes discussions of the Kennedy assassination the Persian Gulf War the Challenger explosion and the Rodney King beating While debunking the image of the United States as a culture of amnesia Sturken also shows how remembering itself is a form of forgetting and how exclusion is a vital part of memory formation

Zapruder Øyvind Vågnes, 2012-08-24 Winner Peter C Rollins Book Award 2012 As the fiftieth anniversary of the Kennedy assassination approaches the traumatic aspects of the tragedy continue to haunt our perceptions of the 1960s One reason for this lies in the home movie of the incident filmed by Abraham Zapruder a bystander who became one of the twentieth century s most important accidental documentarians The first book devoted exclusively to the topic Zapruder traces the journey of the film and its effect on the world s collective imagination Providing insightful perspective as an observer of American culture Norwegian media studies scholar yvind V gnes begins by analyzing three narratives that are projections of Zapruder s images performance group Ant Farm s video The Eternal Frame Don DeLillo s novel Underworld and an episode from Seinfeld Subsequent topics he investigates include Dealey Plaza s Sixth Floor Museum Zoran Naskovski s installation Death in Dallas assassin video games and other artifacts of the ways in which the footage has made a lasting impact on popular culture and the historical imagination V gnes also explores the role of other accidental documentarians such as those who captured scenes of 9 11 Zapruder s footage has never yielded a conclusive account of what happened in Dealey Plaza Zapruder thoroughly examines both this historical enigma and its indelible afterimages in our collective imagination

Trauma and the Memory of Politics Jenny Edkins, 2003-07-31 In this interesting study Jenny Edkins explores how we remember traumatic events such as wars famines genocides and terrorism and questions the assumed role of commemorations as simply reinforcing state and nationhood Taking examples from the World Wars Vietnam the Holocaust Kosovo and September 11th Edkins offers a thorough discussion of practices of memory such as memorials museums remembrance ceremonies the diagnosis of post traumatic stress and the act of bearing witness She examines the implications of these commemorations in terms of language political power sovereignty and nationalism She argues that some forms of remembering do not ignore the horror of what happened but rather use memory to promote change and to challenge the political systems that produced the violence of wars and genocides in the first place This wide ranging study embraces literature history politics and international relations and makes a significant contribution to the study of memory Filipino American Transnational Activism ,2019-12-09 Read an interview with Robyn Rodriguez Filipino American Transnational Activism Diasporic Politics among the Second Generation offers an account of how Filipinos born or raised in the United States often defy the multiple assimilationist agendas that attempt to shape their understandings of themselves Despite conditions that might lead them to reject any kind of relationship to the Philippines in favor of a deep rootedness in the United States many forge linkages to the homeland and are actively engaged in activism and social movements transnationally Though it may well be true that most Filipino Americans have an ambivalent relationship to the Philippines many of the chapters of this book show that other possibilities for belonging and imaginaries of home are being crafted and pursued The Song George Putnam Upton,1915 confrontation with suffering loss and finitude Politicians in turn increasingly recognize consolation as a cultural expectation and they often work hard to fulfill it The events of September 11 2001 raised these questions of meaning powerfully How were Americans to make sense of the violence that unfolded on that sunny Tuesday morning This book examines how political leaders drew upon a long tradition of consolation discourse in their effort to interpret September 11 arguing that the day s events were mediated through memories of past suffering in decisive ways It then traces how the struggle to define the meaning of September 11 has continued in foreign policy discourse commemorative ceremonies and the contentious redevelopment of the World Trade Center site in lower Manhattan
