Resources in Education, 1997 The Image and the Witness Frances

Guerin, Roger Hallas, 2007 The Image and the Witness Trauma Memory and Visual Culture is a timely interdisciplinary collection of original essays concerning the ethical stakes of the image in our visually saturated age. It explores the role of the material image in bearing witness to historical events and the visual representation of witnesses to collective trauma. In arguing for the agency of the image, this unique collection debates post-traumatic memory, documentary ethics, embodied vision, and the recycling of images. It discusses works by Chris Marker, Errol Morris, Derek Jarman, Doris Salcedo, Gerhard Richter, and Boris Mikhailov, along with images from popular culture, including websites and home movies. Cambridge English Readers Level 5: A Tangled Web Maley, African Human Rights Law Journal Volume 20 No 2 2020, 2020-01-01

In 2020, the African Human Rights Law Journal (AHRLJ) or Journal celebrates 20 years since it first was published. The AHRLJ is the only peer-reviewed journal focused on human rights-related topics of relevance to Africa, Africans, and scholars of Africa. It is a time for celebration. Since 2001, two issues of the AHRLJ have appeared every year. Initially published by Juta in Cape Town, South Africa, in 2013 it became an open access journal published by the Pretoria University Law Press (PULP). PULP is a non-profit open access publisher focused on advancing African scholarship. The AHRLJ contains peer-reviewed articles and recent developments discussing the latest court decisions and legal developments in the African Union (AU) and regional economic communities. It contains brief discussions of recently published books. With a total of 517 contributions in 40 issues, 436 articles, and 81 recent developments (not counting book reviews), on average, the AHRLJ contains around 13 contributions per issue. The AHRLJ is accredited with the International Bibliography of the Social Sciences (IBSS) and the South African Department of Higher Education, Science, and Innovation and appears in a number of open access portals, including AfricanLii, the Directory of Open Access Journals, and SciELO.

Over the 20 years of its existence, many significant articles appeared in the AHRLJ. According to Google Scholar, the most-cited articles that have appeared in the Journal over this period are:

- i) T Metz, Ubuntu as a moral theory and human rights in South Africa, 2011, 11 African Human Rights Law Journal 532-559, with 273 citations.
- ii) D Cornell and K van Marle, Exploring ubuntu: Tentative reflections, 2005, 5 African Human Rights Law Journal 195-220, with 97 citations.
- iii) S Tamale, Exploring the contours of African sexualities: Religion, law, and power, 2014, 14 African Human Rights Law Journal 150-177, with 85 citations.

K Kindiki, The normative and institutional framework of the African Union relating to the protection of human rights and the maintenance of international peace and security: A critical appraisal, 2003, 3 African Human Rights Law Journal 97-117, with 59 citations, and T Kaime, The Convention on the Rights of the Child and the cultural legitimacy of children's rights in Africa: Some reflections, 2005, 5 African Human Rights Law Journal 221-238, with 54 citations.

This occasion allows some perspective on the role that the Journal has played over the past 20 years. It is fair to say that the AHRLJ contributed towards strengthening indigenous African scholarship in general and human rights-related themes specifically. Before the Journal, there was no academic outlet devoted to human rights in the broader African context. Both in quantity and in quality, the Journal has left its mark on the landscape of scholarly journals. The AHRLJ has provided a forum for African voices including those that needed to be fine tuned Different from many other peerreviewed journals the AHRLJ has seen it as its responsibility to nurture emerging but not yet fully flourishing talent This approach allowed younger and emerging scholars to be guided to sharpen their skills and find their scholarly voices The AHRLJ has evolved in tandem with the African regional human rights system in a dialogic relationship characterised by constructive criticism When the Journal was first published in 2001 the Protocol on the Establishment of an African Court on Human and Peoples Rights African Court Protocol was not yet in force Over the years the Journal tracked the evolution of the African Court on Human and Peoples Rights African Court from a faltering start through a phase when it increasingly expressed itself in an emerging jurisprudence to the current situation of push back by states signalled by the withdrawal by four states of their acceptance of the Court s direct individual access jurisdiction The same is largely true for the African Committee of Experts on the Rights and Welfare of the Child African Children s Committee It was in 2001 that the AU elected the first members of this Committee It first met in 2002 and its first decade or so was lackluster The Committee examined its first state report only in November 2008 and decided its first communication in March 2011 Articles by authors such as Mezmur and Sloth Nielsen who also served as members of the Committee and Lloyd placed the spotlight on the work of the Committee Initially these articles primarily served to describe and provide information that otherwise was largely inaccessible but over time they increasingly provided a critical gaze and contributed to the constructive evolution of the Committee s exercise of its mandate By 2011 the African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights African Commission was already quite well established but it also underwent significant growth over the subsequent 20 year period Numerous articles in the Journal trace and analyse aspects of this evolution Contributions in the Journal also cover most of the AU human rights treaties and soft law standards A number of issues contain a special focus section dealing with a thematic issue of particular relevance or concern such as the focus on the Protocol to the African Charter on the Rights of Women 2006 no 1 30 years of the African Charter 2011 no 2 and sexual and reproductive rights and the African Women s Protocol 2014 no 2 The scope of the Journal extends beyond the supranational dimension of human rights Over the years many contributions explored aspects of the domestic human rights situation in countries such as the Democratic Republic of the Congo Eswatini Ethiopia Lesotho Malawi Mauritius Nigeria South Africa Tanzania Uganda and Zimbabwe From time to time the specific focus sections also veered towards domestic human rights protection See for instance the focus on 20 years of the South African Constitution 2014 no 2 on adolescent sexual and reproductive rights in the African region 2017 no 2 on the rule of law in sub Saharan Africa 2018 no 1 and on dignity taking and dignity restorations 2018 no 2

A Gamecock Odyssey Alan Piercy, 2023-11-14
Meet the coaches athletes and notable characters that laid the foundation for today s Gamecock Nation The summer of 1971 was especially hot in Columbia and not just because of the weather It was that year that a long simmering conflict between the University of South Carolina and the Atlantic Coast Conference ACC reached the point of boiling over Frustrations over the ACC's recruiting and admission standards and growing pressure from influential athletics director and head football coach Paul Dietzel led the board of trustees to cast a vote in favor of leaving the conference that USC had helped to found eighteen years earlier. This vote would mark the beginning of a new independent era of Gamecock athletics but few at the time could have imagined the resulting twenty-year odyssey. In A Gamecock Odyssey University of South Carolina Sports in the Independent Era Alan Piercy chronicles the significant events and describes the larger-than-life characters of the years following the university's departure from the ACC. The University of South Carolina experienced some of the highest highs and lowest lows in its athletics history. Tales of interpersonal clashes between football head coach Paul Dietzel and men's basketball head coach Frank McGuire, the rise and fall of women's basketball coach Pam Parsons, George Rogers and his magical Heisman Trophy-winning season, the birth of USC's beloved mascot Cockey and other USC sports stories converge stirring feelings of amusement, nostalgia, and pride. With colorful storytelling and Gamecock pride, Piercy gives college sports fans a behind-the-scenes tour of these raucous decades. He explains how South Carolina's independent era tells the broader story of NCAA sports conference realignment, Title IX, the impact of the civil rights movement on college athletics, the evolution of college sports media coverage, and the development of college sports into a multi-billion-dollar business sustained by TV broadcast and licensing rights. A Gamecock Odyssey captures the spirit of the time and shows the reader how those years influenced today's Gamecock culture and national obsession with college athletics. Thinkers 50 Leadership: Organizational Success through Leadership Stuart Cramer, Des Dearlove, 2013-11-22. The World's Leading Business Minds on Today's Most Critical Challenges Featuring Jim Collins, Daniel Goleman, Marshall Goldsmith, Stewart Friedman, and others. Thinkers50 is the Oscars for ideas. Professor Costas Markides, London Business School, Stuart Cramer, and Des Dearlove, creators of Thinkers50, have personally interviewed top leaders from businesses around the globe, from CEOs of multinationals to successful sports coaches to people on the front lines of education. In Thinkers50 Leadership, the authors cull the best practices and most intriguing insights of today's top leadership experts to give you an edge on the competition. Chapters include Crucibles of Leadership, Level 5 Leadership, The Real Thing, Charisma and the Dark Side, Followership, Where Leaders Meet, the World Leaders at Work. Each book in the Thinkers50 series provides authoritative explanations of the concepts, ideas, and practices that are making a difference today, including specific examples and cases drawn from the original sources. The concept of leadership was once reserved for politics and the military. But as the authors write, leadership is now multifaceted rather than simply summed up in the dread words "command and control." Leadership is about feelings. Leadership is about emotions. Leadership is about those who follow. Leadership is about the people touched by the actions of leaders. An in-depth exploration of a fascinating subject, Thinkers50 Leadership reveals the most innovative theories and concepts on the subject from the world's top leadership experts.
