The Oxford History of Classical Reception in English Literature Patrick Cheney, Philip Hardie, 2015-10-29 The Oxford History of Classical Reception OHCREL is designed to offer a comprehensive investigation of the numerous and diverse ways in which literary texts of the classical world have stimulated responses and refashioning by English writers Covering the full range of English literature from the early Middle Ages to the present day OHCREL both synthesizes existing scholarship and presents cutting edge new research employing an international team of expert contributors for each of the five volumes OHCREL endeavours to interrogate rather than inertly reiterate conventional assumptions about literary periods the processes of canon formation and the relations between literary and non literary discourse It conceives of reception as a complex process of dialogic exchange and rather than offering large cultural generalizations it engages in close critical analysis of literary texts It explores in detail the ways in which English writers engagement with classical literature casts as much light on the classical originals as it does on the English writers own cultural context This second volume covers the years 1558 1660 and explores the reception of the ancient genres and authors in English Renaissance literature engaging with the major and many of the minor writers of the period including Shakespeare Marlowe Spenser and Jonson Separate chapters examine the Renaissance institutions and contexts which shape the reception of antiquity and an annotated bibliography provides substantial material for further reading

The Cloud-Capped

Star (Meghe Dhaka Tara) Manishita Dass,2020-10-01 Ritwik Ghatak's The Cloud Capped Star Meghe Dhaka Tara 1960 has been hailed as one of the great classics of world cinema Adrian Martin and one of the five or six greatest melodramas in cinema history Serge Daney A striking blend of modernist aesthetics and melodramatic force it is arguably the best known film by Ghatak widely considered to be one of the most original politically committed and formally innovative film makers from India The film's focus on a family uprooted by the Partition of India and its powerful exploration of displacement and historical trauma gives it a renewed relevance in the midst of a global refugee crisis Manishita Dass situates the film in its historical and cultural contexts and within Ghatak's film making career and connects it to his theatrical work and his writings on film and theatre Her close reading of the film locates its emotional and intellectual power in what she describes as its cinematic theatricality and brings into focus Ghatak's modernist experiments with melodramatic devices his deliberate departures from cinematic realism and distinctive use of sound and music The book draws on extensive archival research excavates new layers of meaning and offers fresh insights into the cosmopolitan cinematic sensibility of a director described as one of the most neglected major film makers in the world Jonathan Rosenbaum Classical Mythology Stephen L. Harris, Gloria Platzner, 1998 The Classical World, 1922 New York School Journal, 1897 The American Bookseller, 1886 Cinefantastique, 1998 British Writers Classics Jay Parini, 2003 The Penguin Guide to Recorded Classical Music, 2008 Cinematic Translation of Ionel Teodoreanu's Lorelei Doris Plantus-Runey, 2007 Having earned his place in Romanian literary history with his consummate trilogy La Medeleni Ionel Teodoreanu published Lorelei in 1935 His critics challenged the dense figurative style of Lorelei thus it would not enjoy wide dissemination in translation This study of the translation and adaptation of Lorelei argues that creative processes both separately and collectively earn value as primary and generative productions of literary and cinematic text Shakespearean Criticism Sandra L. Williamson, 1991-07 The plays theme or focus of this volume includes Cymbeline Pericles The Tempest The Winter's Tale
