Livy: The Fragments and Periochae Volume II, 2023-09-27 Livy's 142 volume history of Rome is one of the high points of ancient historical writing but three quarters of that history is lost known only from indirect sources such as epitomes and quotations D S Levene's Livy The Fragments and Periochae provides a text translation and commentary on all of the surviving para Livian material from antiquity This includes the various epitomes and fragments quotations from or references to the lost books but it also covers citations from the surviving books and all testimonia to Livy's life work and readership between his death in A D 17 and the end of classical antiquity approximately A D 650 This collection of material provides the fullest account ever developed of the reputation of Livy in antiquity and the way he was used and read by later writers Through it Levene explores an important but under studied aspect of the intellectual life of the Roman world This second volume contains the first part of the Periochae the fullest surviving epitome of Livy's history The text has been newly translated and reedited with a new scholarly apparatus there is also a full literary textual and historical commentary The volume's extensive introduction offers the fullest ever study of the Periochae as a literary text with new evidence for the nature of the text and the circumstances of its writing

Love's Grateful Striving M. Jamie Ferreira, 2001-06-07 Soren Kierkegaard's Works of Love 1847 a series of deliberations on the commandment to love one's neighbor has often been condemned by critics Here Ferreira seeks to rehabilitate Works of Love as one of Kierkegaard's most important works He shows that Kierkegaard's deliberations on love are highly relevant to some important themes in contemporary ethics including impartiality duty equality mutuality reciprocity self love sympathy and sacrifice Ferreira also argues that Works of Love bears on issues peculiar to a religious ethic such as the role of God as middle term and the possibility of preserving the aesthetic dimensions of love in a religious ethic of relation
