

Zabul was no ordinary world. It was a private religious sanctuary – location secret, visitors unwelcome. It was a world fanatically dedicated to one belief and to one goal. The belief was that mankind had originated on a single world... the goal was to find it.

To find Earth was a goal that Earl Dumarest shared. But how much did he really have in common with the zealot Terridae, who slept in caskets decorated with the zodiacs and dreamed of soaring towers of crystal and floating cities?

And what were their despotic Guardians really after?

The Terridae:

The Psychology of War and Peace Fred van Houten, 2013-06-29 Can a Baby Be an Enemy Our world is in a deep prolonged crisis The threat of global nuclear war the chronic condition of local wars the imperilled environment and mass starvation are among the major forms this crisis takes The dangers of massive overkill overexploitation of the environment and overpopulation are well known but surprisingly little has been said about their potential interactions their bearing upon each other If there were to be a nuclear confrontation between today's superpowers it might not take place in today's world but in a far less friendly habitat such as the world may be some decades hence And it need hardly be added that the era of this particular super power configuration may be waning rapidly its place to be taken by other international arrangements not necessarily less threatening To understand and cope with our situation we need correspondingly serious reflection This volume forms a welcome part of that process Unavoidably a large part of our thinking about the issues of human survival must be oriented to physical and biological aspects of the total danger But it has not escaped the authors of this book that coupled with these aspects there are profound psychological dangers such as loss of the sense of futurity moral deterioration and a fatalistic decline in the will to struggle to protect our home the Earth Rambo and the Dalai Lama Gordon Fellman, 1998-07-10 Rambo and the Dalai Lama suggests that the assumption that human life is based on conflicts of interest wars and the opposition of people to each other and to nature exists as a paradigm that supplies meaning and orientation to the world An alternative paradigm sees cooperation caring nurturing and loving as equally viable ways of organizing relationships of humans to each other and to nature Fellman sees this shifting emphasis from adversarialism to mutuality as essential to the survival of our species and nature itself Irano-Aryan Faith and Doctrine as Contained in the Zend Avesta Albert Pike, 1924 The Message of Isaiah 40-55 John Goldingay, 2005-12-27 The Message of Isaiah 40-55 traces the argument of Isaiah 40-55 to show how the chapters bring a message of encouragement and challenge about God's intention to restore the Judean community some of whose members are in exile in Babylon others living in the city of Jerusalem that has lain devastated since it fell to the Babylonians in 587 The chapters hold before this community's eyes a vision of the nature of its God as the powerful creator and the loving restorer In the course of following the argument the reader becomes aware that the chapters have to deal with their audience's mysterious resistance to their message It cannot give God the kind of response the message needs and deserves nor can it fulfil the role as God's servant that is designed for it God nevertheless remains committed to it The prophet eventually becomes aware of a distinctive personal calling to embody that response until the people are ready to do so It is the prophet's willingness to do this notwithstanding the suffering it brings that embodies the kind of ministry that needs to be exercised to them so that they may be brought back to God and find a restoration of spirit as well as a physical restoration The Age of Fable Or Beauties of Mythology Thomas Bulfinch, 1894 The Heroic Saga-cycle of Dietrich of Bern Francis Edward Sandbach, 1906 The Great Dionysiak Myth Robert
