Life is uncertain;
death is certain.

Uncertain Death:

Uncertain Death Hazel Holt, 1994 Epiestems of Death Pratham Parekh, 2017-01-01 Death and dying experiences are not common across human race because humans do not share common cultural heritage and physical environment The fact of death thus can be considered as socially constructed fact abounded by idiosyncratic religious beliefs and rituals existing within social life It is almost impossible to have common consensual understanding of death and dying This book tries to investigate various sources of knowledge about death in multiple disciplines from sociological lenses Death, Dying and Bereavement in a Changing World Alan R. Kemp, 2015-10-16 This title takes a comprehensive approach exploring the physical social psychological and spiritual dimensions of death dying and bereavement Through personal stories from real people Death Dying and Bereavement provides readers with a context for understanding their changing encounters with such difficult concepts Death in Documentaries Benjamin Bennett-Carpenter, 2017-11-13 Memento mori is a broad and understudied cultural phenomenon and experience The term memento mori is a Latin injunction that means remember mortality or more directly remember that you must die In art and cultural history memento mori appears widely especially in medieval folk culture and in the well known Dutch still life vanitas paintings of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Yet memento mori extends well beyond these points in art and cultural history In Death in Documentaries The Memento Mori Experience Benjamin Bennett Carpenter suggests that documentaries are an especially apt form of contemporary memento mori Bennett Carpenter shows that documentaries may offer composed transformative experiences in which a viewer may renew one s consciousness of mortality and thus renew one s life Death, Society, and Human Experience Robert Kastenbaum, Christopher M. Moreman, 2024-03-28 The 13th edition of Death Society and Human Experience provides a panoramic overview of the ways that we are touched by death and dying both as individuals and as members of society A landmark text in the field the authors draw on contributions from the social and behavioral sciences as well as the humanities including perspectives offered through history philosophy religion literature and the arts to provide thorough coverage and understanding of topics associated with the end of life and death and dying By approaching the subject from multiple angles the authors explain the various ways that individual cultural and societal attitudes influence both how and when we die and how we live and deal with the knowledge of death and loss Originally written by Robert Kastenbaum a renowned scholar who developed one of the world s first death education courses Christopher M Moreman who has worked in the field of death studies for two decades has updated this edition In addition to infusing his close areas of focus both in afterlife beliefs and experiences and how these might affect how people live their lives he s weaved in new coverage of current affairs including The impact of COVID 19 on experiences of death bereavement mourning and more Expanded legalization of physician assisted dying in the United States and several countries Changes in bereavement rituals and traditions stemming from technology use and social media With additional content and classroom extensions available online Death Society and Human
