Soisson a wise cracking sixty year old man who sets out to conquer the Emerald Isle on a bicycle As Bill takes to the road for a month long assault there is no doubt in his mind that he can indeed conquer the place But many things can happen in a month and after dozens of encounters with the irresistible Gaels who call themselves Irish Soisson comes to realize that instead of conquering he has been clearly bested All along his vagabond way the Irish have out wisecracked outsmarted outlaughed and outloved him He has been enslaved by the affections of a host of delightful characters who regularly take smart aleck strangers and bring them to heel with large doses of blarney twice told tales and patented put downs Moreover he has been deeply moved by the history of that poetic people Most remarkable though is that the author put to a test by wit or kindness at every turn for a solid month has loved every moment of it equally the humbling as well as the exalting And by the time his story has been told you sense that he will never again be quite the same brash man who landed in Dublin He has been touched by many people in ways ranging from riotously funny to deeply emotional Each experience has been different but each has been very human and very well Irish In the end when he leaves that enchanted land he is overcome with the mysterious feeling that the butcher in Dublin was right on the mark when he said Who do you think sent you here and do you think it was just for a piece of meat Filled with colorful historical background peopled by warm characters and impish fairies Feel the Magic is a story that anyone who hasnt yet been to Ireland wont want to miss But who are the others Didnt I say there are two kinds of people who wont want to miss reading this book Yes I did The others of course are those who have been to Ireland
