Rape Joanna Bourke, 2007 In America someone is sexually assaulted every two and a half minutes Now more than ever a comprehensive reevaluation of sexual violence is urgently necessary Award winning author and historian Joanna Bourke delivers this timely investigation of rape a crime that is increasingly difficult to define yet devastating in its impact She draws from the work of criminologists sociologists and psychologists to examine the motivations driving perpetrators of sex crimes insisting that rapists are not born they become The rapist not the victim is the target of Bourke s unflinching analysis for the perpetrator himself she asserts can only be reformed once he is humanized Though indebted to a growing body of feminist analyses she radically departs from this vein of literature in order to place the rapist in his or her political cultural context
