War Children:

Children at War Peter Warren Singer, 2005 An internationally recognized expert on 21st century warfare looks at the use of children as soldiers in more than three quarters of the world's conflicts describing how children are indoctrinated and trained as soldiers and how it can be stopped Illustrations

Cold War Children's Television Vibiana Bowman Cvetkovic, 2023-10-16 Cold War Children's Television Philadelphia as a Case Study examines a culturally significant phenomenon of the Cold War the locally produced hosted children's show The Cold War era and the coming of age of commercial television were entwined not only chronologically but societally The era of the locally produced hosted show closed in the wake of Sesame Street due to shifts in social policy industry economics and rising expectations for children programming Through the lens of cultural and historical analysis this book reveals that beyond that nostalgia lies a vital visual form that thrived in the Cold War era one that reflected the ideals of childhood media and nation of a societal terrain from which the American children's television host emerged

Children of War Jo Boyden, Sara Gibbs, 1997 Examines the relationship between conflict and psycho-social distress how children their families and communities are affected by war and social upheaval and the appropriateness of national and international responses to psycho-social problems

War Child Martin Parsons, 2008 Children have always been the victims of war This work examines the effects of conflict on the Russian War Children during the Leningrad Siege children in Germany during the Holocaust and the children in more recent conflicts in West Africa It reflects the stories of children whose lives were affected by the horrors of war
