Warsaw Rising:

The Warsaw Rising of 1944 Jan M. Ciechanowski, 2002-05-16 Why did the Polish underground Home Army call for what proved to be a suicidal uprising Why did they decide that their poorly armed troops should alone liberate Warsaw shortly before the Soviet entry into the capital Why were the approaching Russians not informed Why did the Red Army fail to take Warsaw in the first days of August 1944 as both Stalin and Bor Kornorowski had anticipated Dr Ciechanowski examines in detail the political diplomatic ideological and military background of the Rising and the events and decisions which immediately preceded it He traces in turn the main aspects of Polish politics strategy and diplomacy during the whole of the Second World War It is based primarily on unpublished Polish contemporary documents and on interviews with highly placed participants in and witnesses of the Warsaw Rising It provides a definitive account of why the Rising took place and is an extremely important contribution to the history of the Second World War The Warsaw Uprising of 1944 Włodzimierz Borodziej, 2006 Publisher description

Rising '44 Norman Davies, 2005-10-04 In a brilliant narrative of one of the most dramatic episodes in twentieth century history Davies spotlights sixty three days in 1944 when the Wehrmacht crushed the Polish Resistance in Warsaw slaughtered thousands and destroyed the city

Days of Adversity Evan McGilvray, 2015-07-19 This work is a reexamination of the decisions regarding the 1944 Warsaw Uprising made by the leadership of the underground Polish Army AK as well as the questionable attitudes of senior Polish commanders in exile in London The questions raised are was the uprising necessary and why was it so poorly conducted by a totally indifferent leadership The challenge is made that the Polish leaders in Warsaw and in London were clearly unfeeling In Warsaw the uprising was allowed to happen and was doomed from the very beginning owing to poor generalship The Soviets can be seen rather than to have betrayed the Poles to have behaved in the same manner as they had always behaved to the Poles and Poland that is underhanded and with great deceit Therefore why did the Warsaw Poles rise up when encouraged by the Soviets The Poles should have known that it was a trick Despite plans laid down by the Allies to support such uprisings as had been the case in Paris during August 1944 the Red Army watched the AK be destroyed by the Germans to save themselves the same job Once the uprising failed the Polish leadership went into what could only be described as genteel captivity compared with the fate of hundreds of thousands of their countrymen and women who were herded out of Warsaw by German armed forces and sent to concentration camps illegal prisoner of war camps or forced into slave labor In the West senior Polish commanders did not consider a 100% casualty rate to be unacceptable as they pushed for Allied flights to resupply Warsaw This callous disregard for life was part of the lack of understanding in the leadership of the reality of the Polish situation in 1944 the war was not about Poland but the complete defeat of Germany If Polish freedom came out of this then good otherwise the Allies were not going to be diverted from the constant aerial bombardment of Germany as the Allies swept eastward and westward towards Germany This work is supplemented with Polish sources as well as interviews with five women who had been involved in the Warsaw Uprising as young women and girls in 1944 Now in their 80s these ladies kindly granted interviews with the author in Poland during 2012
