and practice A wide range of media genres expressive modes and strategies of representation have been embraced to convey the idea of emptiness Form has been used to express the essence of formlessness and in Japan this gave rise to a remarkable highly diverse array of artworks and a tradition of self negating art In this volume Yukio Lippit explores the painting The Gourd and the Catfish ca 1413 widely considered one of the most iconic works of Japanese Zen art today Its subject matter appears straightforward enough a man standing on a bank holds a gourd in both hands attempting to capture or pin down the catfish swimming in the stream below This is an impossible task a nonsensical act underscored by the awkwardness with which the figure struggles even to hold his gourd But this impossibility is precisely the point
