Germany and the Axis Powers from Coalition to Collapse R. L. DiNardo, 2005 It seemed that whenever Mussolini acted on his own it was bad news for Hitler Indeed the Fuhrer's relations with his Axis partners were fraught with an almost total lack of coordination Compared to the Allies the coalition was hardly an alliance at all Focusing on Germany's military relations with Italy Romania Hungary and Finland Richard DiNardo unearths a wealth of information that reveals how the Axis coalition largely undermined Hitler's objectives from the Eastern Front to the Balkans Mediterranean and North Africa DiNardo argues that the Axis military alliance was doomed from the beginning by a lack of common war aims the absence of a unified command structure and each nation's fundamental mistrust of the others Germany was disinclined to make the kinds of compromises that successful wartime partnerships demanded and because Hitler insisted on separate pacts with each nation Italy and Finland often found themselves conducting counterproductive parallel wars on their own DiNardo's detailed assessments of ground naval and air operations reveal precisely why the Axis allies were so dysfunctional as a collective force sometimes for seemingly mundane but vital reasons a shortage of interpreters for example His analysis covers coalition warfare at every level demonstrating that some military services were better at working with their allies than others while also pointing to rare successes such as Rommel's effective coordination with Italian forces in North Africa In the end while some individual Axis units fought with distinction if not on a par with the vaunted Wehrmacht and helped Germany achieve some of its military aims the coalition's overall military performance was riddled with disappointments Breaking new ground DiNardo's work enlarges our understanding of Germany's defeat while at the same time offering a timely reminder of the challenges presented by coalition warfare

The Secret Battle For Britain M. S. Morgan, M S Morgan, 2025-12-31 The dramatic story of Franz von Werra famously the only Axis PoW to succeed in escaping and make it home during the Second World War is told in the 1957 movie The One That Got Away The film details von Werra's interrogation by RAF intelligence in 1940 presenting an enlightening but compressed version of his treatment following his capture in the Battle of Britain The script revealed a little of the tactics of his RAF interrogators which so impressed von Werra that he was quick to tell the Luftwaffe High Command upon his return to Germany in 1941 Of course von Werra was just one of many Luftwaffe airmen captured during 1939 and 1940 Many if not all were subject to processing and interrogation having been taken prisoner Information was gleaned through private discussions between senior officers and some lower ranks obtained via covert microphones as well as interrogation stool pigeons However these tactics had been developed in the first months of the war and with the Battle of Britain producing vast quantities of PoWs the new tactics were honed on these unsuspecting guinea pigs The German airmen most of whom at this stage of the war believed that victory was inevitable provided Air Intelligence both wittingly and unwittingly with a treasure trove of information which covered not only technical and tactical intelligence but also possible war crimes morale and more Air Intelligence used tactics that any modern interrogator would recognise The RAF also built up quite a library of information much of it coming from what we now call Open source material This included newspapers magazines radio broadcasts and information from previous prisoners Carefully collated and analysed in time Air Intelligence built up a detailed picture of pilots aircraft units and the general social situation around a unit or airfield community This book examines the development of Air Intelligence and its interrogation of Luftwaffe airmen from 1939 to the end of the 1940 providing a fascinating insight into a little known part of both the Battle of Britain and the Blitz

Case White William Russ,2018-01-15 In September 1939 Nazi Germany initiated the second world war by invading Poland William Russ has compiled a highly detailed study of the German invasion of Poland in September 1939 examining the actions of every group on a daily basis This book explores the campaign down to the regimental level from the German perspective listing every action as appropriate The appendices provide a complete order of battle for the Germans and the Polish forces as well as their positions There are sixty nine maps of the campaign as well as information on armament and equipment

Burning the Past Mark H Lewis,2017-02-21 The emperor of Japan devises a new plan after losing World War II A colonial marshal is brought in from Mars to investigate a seemingly minor murder

Luftwaffe Camouflage and Markings 1933-1945: Code systems & markings, night fighters, ground-attack, reconnaissance, bombers, maritime, transports & trainers Kenneth A. Merrick,2004 Volume Two concludes this exhaustive work of reference with in depth studies of the colors and markings of the Luftwaffe s bomber Dornier Heinkel and Junkers and divebomber and ground attack Ju 87 and Fw 190 night fighter Messerschmitt Junkers and Dornier various maritime and anti shipping aircraft military transport Ju 52 Ju 290 and commercial aircraft reconnaissance aircraft and helicopters as well as training liaison and light aircraft Detailed appendices cover factory applied schemes camouflage patterns and fieldmodified schemes paint compositions and revised standards As with Volume One the text is supported by a wealth of rare and previously unpublished photographs Both volumes are supplied with color paint chip charts made from paint mixed to the original formulas specified by RLM in the Nazi era

The German Air Force, 1933-1945 Matthew Cooper,1981 It ensured that whatever was decided in the Reich s Chancellery and whatever was done in the front line and in the factories defeat would result In this the first detailed comprehensive history of the Luftwaffe since 1946 Matthew Cooper describes the disintegration of its high command and the disastrous leadership of G ring He analyses the development of the Luftwaffe s strategy and with it its aircraft and its decisions regarding dive bombing heavy bombers and jet fighters He describes the Luftwaffe s campaigns and shows clearly how from the moment it was committed to battle in 1939 it was doomed to failure in any prolonged world war With hindsight it is possible to see that its one chance of avoiding defeat lay in destroying the RAF in the summer of 1940 and this book carefully analyses just why when it was within an ace of success the Luftwaffe gave victory to its enemies Duxford and the Big Wings, 1940-45 Martin W. Bowman,2009 A pulsating account of the young RAF and American fighter boys who flew Spitfires Hurricanes Thunderbolts and Mustangs during 1940 45 It is unique in that the story is told using first person accounts from RAF German and American Eagles who fought in the skies over England in the Battle of Britain in the summer of 1940 and the great air offensives over occupied Europe from 1942 onwards The first five and a half chapters cover the Battle of Britain period when the RAF squadrons fought dog fights with the Luftwaffe and then fought them in gathering strength using the Big Wings to meet the bomber fleets attacking London The second part of the book covers the Eagle squadron period which was expanded with America s entry into the war The action moves to the USAAF Big Wings of Thunderbolts and Mustang fighters that flew escort missions and dueled with the Luftwaffe over the continent during the massive bomber raids on German targets in France the Low Countries and the Reich itself A whole host of incredible first hand accounts by British Polish Czech German and American fighter pilots permeate the action and describe the aerial battles as only they can This unique book also includes many accounts and photos that have not previously been seen before while the rich mix of combat accounts from all sides are brought together for the first time in one volume Der Weltkrieg 1914-1915 ,1915 Germany and the Second World War: The Global War ,1990 Marine-rundschau ,1907 Jahrbuch für Deutschlands Seeinteressen ,1908 Aircraft Annual ,1970 Fallschirmjäger. Rudolf Böhmler,Werner Haupt,1971 Eagle in Flames E. R. Hooton,1999 In his earlier book Hooton traced the German Air Force through its glory days of build up to war from 1933 and its original success as part of the Blitzkrieg offensive Here he charts its downfall from all conquering force to defeat Ueberall ,1913
