A SLIPPING DOWNLIFE

BASED ON THE NOVEL
BY ANNE TYLER

Slipping Down Life

Daniel L. Cease

Slipping Down Life:

A Slipping-Down Life Anne Tyler, 2011-01-05 To read a novel by Anne Tyler is to fall in love People The beloved bestselling Pulitzer Prize winning author brings us the story of Evie Decker a shy slightly plump teenager lonely and silent But her quiet life is shattered when she hears the voice of Drumstrings Casey on the radio and becomes instantly attracted to him She manages to meet him bursting out of her lonely shell and into the attentive gaze of the intangible man who becomes all too real Without Anne Tyler American fiction would be an immeasurably bleaker place Newsweek The Editor Sara B. Franklin, 2025-04-22 Legendary editor Judith Jones the woman behind some of the most important authors of the 20th century including Julia Child Anne Frank Edna Lewis John Updike and Sylvia Plath finally gets her due in this surprising granular luminous and path breaking biography Edward Hirsch author of How to Read a Poem At Doubleday's Paris office in 1949 twenty five year old Judith Jones spent most of her time wading through manuscripts in the slush pile and passing on projects until one day a book caught her eye She read it in one sitting then begged her boss to consider publishing it A year later Anne Frank The Diary of a Young Girl became a bestseller It was the start of a culture defining career in publishing During her more than fifty years as an editor at Alfred A Knopf Jones nurtured the careers of literary icons such as Sylvia Plath Anne Tyler and John Updike and helped launched new genres and trends in literature At the forefront of the cookbook revolution she published the who's who of food writing Edna Lewis M F K Fisher Claudia Roden Madhur Jaffrey James Beard and most famously Julia Child Through her tenacious work behind the scenes Jones helped turn these authors into household names changing cultural mores and expectations along the way Judith's work spanned decades of America's most dramatic cultural change from the end of World War II through the civil rights movement and the fight for women's equality and the books she published acted as tools of quiet resistance Now based on exclusive interviews never before seen personal papers and years of research her astonishing career is explored for the first time in this thorough and humanizing portrait Kirkus Reviews Slipping-down Life Anne Tyler, 1992-08-23 Our Day, 1905 Farm Life and Agricultural Epitomist, 1913 Lithographers' Journal, 1919 Anne Tyler Robert W. Croft, 1995-02-22 Anne Tyler is one of America's most significant contemporary writers This book is a solid introduction to her life and work It includes the first biography of Tyler along with a record of her writings and the response to her work It incorporates source materials from the Anne Tyler Papers at Duke University and letters from Tyler to the author The volume lists all of Tyler's novels short stories articles and book reviews and provides an annotated bibliography of critical studies The first half of the book is a biography of Tyler The author describes her childhood in a North Carolina commune her high school years in Raleigh her college years at Duke and her earliest writing efforts The biography charts the development of her life and career through her marriage motherhood early novels and stories her life in Baltimore and career as a book reviewer her rise to fame and the themes of her major works The bibliography that follows lists her novels short stories nonfiction articles and essays poetry children's books book reviews and the manuscripts in her papers at Duke University along with an annotated secondary bibliography Anne Tyler Paul Bail, 1998-10-15 Anne Tyler's novels strike a deep chord of responsiveness in her readers because her novels bring to life contemporary characters to whom we can instantly relate and in whose experiences we can see mirrored our own. Tyler's novels deal with the human experience: relationships between marital partners, between parents and children, between siblings, the meaning of love, the nature of identity, impermanence and change, and loss and continuity. In Anne Tyler novels, life is a complexity whose texture is built out of multiple layers. In this insightful study, Paul Bail shows us how Tyler constructs the complex reality of life through character, narrative, point of view, theme, and literary devices. With the exception of Tyler's earliest two novels, which she prefers to forget, a chapter is devoted to each of the other novels she has written. Among the twelve are her unforgettable novels of family relationships and love, loss, and renewal, such as Dinner at the Homesick Restaurant, The Accidental Tourist, and Breathing Lessons. Also included is an analysis of Tyler's most recent novel, A Patchwork Planet. Following a biographical chapter that relates Tyler's life to her work, Bail discusses the novels within the literary tradition of Southern regional literature, women's literature, and popular culture. He also explores the influence of religion on her writing. Each novel is discussed in an individual chapter that includes sections on plot, characters, themes, literary devices, historical setting, and point of view. Bail also offers an alternate critical approach from which to read the novel, such as feminist or multicultural criticism. This study is ideal for students and readers of Anne Tyler and will enrich the reading and appreciation of her novels.

The Congregationalist and Christian World, 1906 Railroad Trainmen's Journal, 1899 The Railroad Trainman, 1899 Success, 1922 The Literary Digest, 1907 Railroad Trainmen's Journal Daniel L. Cease, 1899 A Slipping-down Life Anne Tyler, 1986 Without Anne Tyler, American fiction would be an immeasurably bleaker place. NEWSDAY Evie Decker is a shy, slightly plump teenager, lonely and silent. But her quiet life is shattered when she hears the voice of Drumstrings Casey on the radio and becomes instantly attracted to him. She manages to meet him, bursting out of her lonely shell and into the attentive gaze of the intangible man who becomes all too real. From the Paperback edition Life's Shop Window Victoria Cross, 1908 The Temporal Horizon Karin Linton, 1989 This dissertation studies the theme of time in Anne Tyler's fiction and centres specifically on how Jeremy Pauling in Celestial Navigation, Justine Peck in Searching for Caleb, Cody Tull in Dinner at the Homesick Restaurant, and Macon Leary in The Accidental Tourist respond to the losses brought about by the passage of time. The introduction establishes similarities between Tyler's emphasis on change, the passage of time, and reactions to change, and Paul Fraise's focus on temporally organized behaviour. The three interrelated perspectives of the past, the present, and the future. The temporal horizon is used in this dissertation as a key to interpreting the temporal awareness of Tyler's characters and their behaviour in adapting to change. It is often memories of crises, such as unexpected death or desertion, which predominate the protagonist's temporal outlook at the expense of the present, and the future. The protagonist's goal is to free themselves from the past and discover a greater significance in the present and the future With the exception of Jeremy Pauling they finally succeed in altering the hold of the past and as a consequence of this shift of vision a better balance between their three temporal perspectives is achieved dissertation indicates that the majority of her protagonists in the end reach a moment of buoyancy when at least temporarily in control of time they apparently trust in the possibility of altering their situations Because of this anticipation they also modify their behaviour and take steps to give their futures a new direction While it may be an open question where the passage of time may lead them the thesis indicates that in many of Anne Tyler s novels the endings seem suggestive of affirmative change
