Uniting Against Terror David Cortright, George A. Lopez, 2007 As terrorist attacks continue around the world from London and Madrid to Afghanistan and Iraq questions multiply about the effectiveness of current antiterrorist strategies America s reliance on military approaches and the Bush administration s avowal of a constant state of war have overshadowed nonmilitary multilateral efforts and there has been an analogous neglect of these alternative strategies in the literature on terrorism Uniting Against Terror fills this gap examining and evaluating post 9 11 cooperative nonmilitary responses to the global terrorist threat with a particular focus on efforts of the United Nations the Financial Action Task Force the European Union and a wide array of multilateral institutions Uniting Against Terror argues that defeating the global terrorist threat requires engaging international financial diplomatic intelligence and defense communities and law enforcement organizations in an atmosphere of cooperation It examines cooperative diplomatic and economic policies to address the changing face of terrorism and the global Al Qaida threat differentiates between protective measures and long term preventive policies and makes recommendations for effective cooperative nonmilitary strategies Included are chapters that analyze the UN and its role the unique blend of sanctions and diplomacy that convinced Libya to end its support of terrorism efforts to halt the financing of terrorist networks and an account of the European Union s unified Plan of Action against terrorism Contributors Stephanie Ahern Oldrich Bures David Cortright Kathryn L Gardner Linda Gerber Stellingwerf Jason Ipe George A Lopez Thomas E McNamara Alistair Millar Eric Rosand David Cortright is a Research Fellow at the Joan B Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies at the University of Notre Dame and President of Fourth Freedom Forum George A Lopez is Senior Fellow and Professor of Political Science at the Joan B Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies Cortright and Lopez have edited several other books together including most recently Smart Sanctions Targeting Economic Statecraft Spectrum of Terror R. Hrair Dekmejian, 2007 Since 9 11 images of fanatical jihadists have become the international symbol of terrorism In the wake of the attacks journalists and academics alike have taken up the task of trying to make sense of these seemingly alien terrorist organizations Many of these sources have perpetuated the idea that terrorists are unknowable or irrational What is often missed is the degree to which terrorists have motivations that can be grasped and understood In his new text Dekmejian places terrorism within a spectrum of political violence creating a typology of terror based on scale and intent as well as by type of actor from isolated attacks by individual bombers to large scale attacks against state targets by organized networks to state sponsored genocide and politicide thus facilitating comparisons across multiple cases As well the book s model of conflict is informed by game theory enriched with understandings of psychological cultural and historical contexts helping students focus on the strategies and desired outcomes of different parties to conflict This analytic approach enables students to trace the changes in mutual perceptions and preferences between terrorists and their targets and leads to a fuller understanding of the causes and dynamics of political violence The book s uniquely comprehensive coverage of terrorism includes extended cases on the IRA the Tamil Tigers Chechen rebels Al Qaeda Aum Shinrikyo Hizbullah and Hamas Each case looks at the historical origins political factors leadership and organization of the group to give context Discussions of typical tactics patterns of violence the role of external actors and outcomes help readers to explore possible solutions that might stop the cycle of violence and promote peaceful coexistence among the antagonists Appendix materials include glossaries of terrorist groups and technical terms
