To Have Have Not Southeast Asian:

To Have and Have Not Jonathan Marshall, 2023-04-28 Jonathan Marshall makes a provocative statement it was not ideological or national security considerations that led the United States into war with Japan in 1941 Instead he argues it was a struggle for access to Southeast Asia's vast storehouse of commodities rubber oil and tin that drew the United States into the conflict Boldly departing from conventional wisdom Marshall reexamines the political landscape of the time and recreates the mounting tension and fear that gripped U S officials in the months before the war Unusual in its extensive use of previously ignored documents and studies this work records the dilemmas of the Roosevelt administration it initially hoped to avoid conflict with Japan and after many diplomatic overtures it came to see war as inevitable Marshall also explores the ways that international conflicts often stem from rivalries over land food energy and industry His insights into resource war the competition for essential commodities will shed new light on U S involvement in other conflicts notably in Vietnam and the Persian Gulf This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1995 Early History of Soybeans and Soyfoods Worldwide (1024 BCE to 1899) William Shurtleff; Akiko Aoyagi, The world's most comprehensive well documented and well illustrated book on this subject With extensive subject and geographical index 463 photographs and illustrations Free of charge in digital PDF format
