Benjamin Breckinridge Warfield

To Proclaim The Faith:

To Proclaim the Faith Alan K. Waltz, 1983 A Faith to Proclaim James S. Stewart, 1953 In 1999 Preaching Magazine ranked James S Stewart as the best preacher of the twentieth century commenting that his books on preaching have inspired tens of thousands of preachers to strive for greater effectiveness in their proclamation of God's Word In A Faith to Proclaim James Stewart focuses on the essential message of evangelism rather than sermon preparation or delivery technique His pointers on proclaiming the essentials of the Christian faith should be read by all who want to be more effective communicators of the Christian message Proclaim Christ Until He Comes James Dixon Douglas, 1990 A Call to the Kingdom Michael I. Kaplan, 2017-05 Faithful Christians are under spiritual and physical assault in our modern world and their challenges are greater than at any other time in recent history Hostile religions anti faith movements and politically correct governments are literally trying to destroy Christianity at its core God won't let that happen He has deployed a new generation of Christian Warriors to stand in defense of His faithful elect The Lord is once again summoning His most faithful servants Christians advancing the Kingdom of God in America commanding them to be strong courageous and resolute in the defense of their faith Scripture reveals when God commands an act of obedience He means it Each chapter in A Call to the Kingdom will prepare you with the knowledge biblical insights and strategies you need to proclaim and defend your Christian faith successfully Chapter 1 The Power and Promise of God's Written Word Chapter 2 The Mission to Advance Christ's Kingdom on Earth Chapter 3 Planning for Victory with Lessons from History Chapter 4 Defending Christ Against the Adversaries of God Chapter 5 The Priority of Prayer in the Christian Mission Chapter 6 Forging Spiritual Strength with Testing and Trials Chapter 7 Advancing Christianity with Faith in Action NOTE The academic edition of this text is available to higher education institutions in digital format on the VitalSource platform vitalsource.com Strivings for the Faith Christian Evidence Society, 1874 The God We Proclaim John Hughes, Andrew Davison, 2017-12-19 Throughout history Christians have found the summary of their faith in the three ancient creeds The God We Proclaim explores that faith as it is found in the shortest of them the Apostles Creed The contributors are among Britain's foremost Christian communicators and teachers Written with an infectious enthusiasm for theology The God We Proclaim is ideal for anyone seeking to understand the Christian faith either individually or in a church or student study group It is based on a set of sermons delivered in the chapel of Jesus College Cambridge which surveyed the foundations of Christianity Dorothy L Sayers 1893-1957 wrote in her essay The Dogma is the Drama that people assume that if churches are empty it is because preachers insist too much upon doctrine or dull dogma as they disapprovingly call it Sayers knew that the opposite is true It is the neglect of dogma that makes for dullness The Christian faith is the most exciting drama that ever staggered the imagination of man and the dogma is the drama Faith Through the Wilderness Dennis Smock, 2020-11-30 It is easy to proclaim faith when everything is going the way that you want it to go How do you respond when the world doesn't cooperate with what you have planned We all face these tough times in our lives Life is not a series of mountaintop experiences We must be able to proclaim that we can keep and grow our faith while we are in the tough times This book explores faith wilderness experiences human nature comfort zones and the feelings of helplessness hopelessness and loss that we all feel when things aren't going the way that we want It also reminds each of us who ultimately guides our steps and the simple fact that we must never lose that knowledge that faith

The Faith of the Faithless Simon Critchley, 2014-02-04 The return to religion has perhaps become the dominant cliché of contemporary theory which rarely offers anything more than an exaggerated echo of a political reality dominated by religious war Somehow the secular age seems to have been replaced by a new era where political action flows directly from metaphysical conflict The Faith of the Faithless asks how we might respond Following Critchley's Ininitely Demanding this new book builds on its philosophical and political framework also venturing into the questions of faith love religion and violence Should we defend a version of secularism and quietly accept the slide into a form of theism or is there another way From Rousseau's politics and religion to the return to St Paul in Taubes Agamben and Badiou via explorations of politics and original sin in the work of Schmitt and John Gray Critchley examines whether there can be a faith of the faithless a belief for unbelievers Expanding on his debate with Slavoj Žižek Critchley concludes with a meditation on the question of violence and the limits of non-violence

The Faith, 1911 The Meaning of Faith Harry Emerson Fosdick, 1917 A book on faith has been for years my hope and intention And now it comes to final form during the most terrific war men ever waged when faith is sorely tried and deeply needed Direct discussion of the war has been purposely avoided the issues here presented are not confined to those which the war suggests but many streams of thought within the book flow in channels that the war has worn Since the conflict had to come I am glad for this book's sake that it was not written until it had Europe's holocaust for a background Against one misunderstanding the reader should be guarded If anyone approaches these studies expecting to find detailed and special views of Christian doctrine he will be disappointed The perplexities of mind and life and the affirmations of religious faith with which these studies deal lie far beneath sectarian doctrinal controversy I have tried to make clear a foundation on which faith might build its thoughts of Christian truth And while I have spoken freely of God and Christ and the Spirit of the Cross and life eternal I have not intended or endeavored a complete theology Preface

Service, 1912 The Faith of Church and Nation Arthur Foley Winnington Ingram, 1905 Christian Faith and Life, 1909 The faith of an agnostic; or, First essays in rationalism, by George Forester Sir Granville George Greenwood, 1902 The Faith of Our Fathers James Gibbons, 1879 Faith and Life Benjamin Breckinridge Warfield, 1916 An Exposition of the Epistles of St Paul and of the Catholic Epistles : Consisting of an Introduction to Each Epistle, an Analysis of Each Chapter, a Paraphrase of the Sacred Text and a Commentary John MacEvilly, 1895 The Christian Leader, 1930 Walking by Faith Swaddled in His Glory Regina D. Thomas, 2014-09-11 Since I wrote the previous version of this book I have encountered many other storms Some have been very brutal But thanks be unto God I believe I fought a good fight and I have intentionally kept the faith in spite of the fierce storms God never tell us when the storms will come however He did warn us that they will We can be assured that we will not walk through it alone if we truly walk by faith trusting Him every step of the way According to the preacher in Ecclesiastes chapter three 3 and seven 7 by revelation states that God does not show us everything at once Who would dare go through till the end knowing the outcome We are admonished to believe only and trust Him After all it is for our good and not for evil to bring us to destiny Wow But it sure hurts You will grow through as you go through All of this I have learned in this season I am extremely grateful after the fact It has been a season of transformation and renewal of my mind I can now be of help to someone else I painfully allowed myself to go through the dark moments crying out to God each step of the way Brethren I truly know the way out I know his sustaining grace and power Through it all I maintained a very intimate relationship with my Heavenly Father From Fact to Faith John Monro Gibson,1898
