This is the first volume of three about the life of Saint Josemaría Escrivá. He has been hailed as a pioneer in helping ordinary Christians find God in their daily lives. Moved as a teenager by footprints of a barefoot Carmelite priest in the snow, Josemaría felt called to greater generosity in the priesthood and in his struggles to build up Opus Dei during the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War. This latest biography is the most extensively researched work on his family history, childhood, adolescence, and young adulthood. The reader benefits from an enormous wealth of details in extensive notes and appendices. Accompanying them are excerpts from his correspondence, spiritual writings, and testimonials from dozens of friends and acquaintances. The remarkable story continues in volumes II and III.      The Founder of Opus Dei, Volume I - The Early Years

On May 23, 1961, seven-year-old Deborah Blaney Ward stood on a chair in front of her stove to retrieve some sugar from the shelf. She didn't know the stove was on and red-hot. When her dress touched the ring, she was instantly engulfed in flames. The severe burns covered over 70 percent of her body. But this would only be the beginning of trauma that would threaten to consume her just as the fire had. Because of the accident, Deborah was labeled different and suffered for it in many ways. She struggled through abuse but maintained she was alright only to find out years later that she was not. She tried to prove that she was just like everyone else, not realizing that she was destroying everything in her path. Silently Weeping is the personal story of a young girl's tragic journey to adulthood from scars to survival.      Journal of the ...
