Straddling Borders:

Border Straddling Heritages Ali Mozaffari, David C. Harvey, 2025-11-01 The twin effects of ever increasing mobility and rising globalization have done much to dislodge formerly stable social relations and our sense of time and place In this exacting and geographically wide ranging reassessment of the overlap between borders and heritage Ali Mozaffari and David C Harvey interrogate how this hyperglobalization has simultaneously challenged and intensified notions of sovereignty and nationality Ranging from the impact of empathy in border heritage work to the Europeanization of war heritage narratives and border heritage complexes in the Middle East this volume illuminates the methodological implications of viewing heritage as both an engagement with the borders of the past and an activity that continually creates them A Research Agenda for Border Studies James W. Scott, 2020-12-25 This innovative Research Agenda uncovers links between different levels of border making processes or bordering from the political to the cognitive and connects everyday processes and experiences of border making to the wider social world It addresses the question of how everyday bordering practices and discourses can be productively linked to different aspects of social relations Witnesses to Interwar Subcarpathian Rus' Patricia A. Krafcik, 2024-06-10 In the midst of a contentious atmosphere of the interwar period the far eastern province of Subcarpathian Rus attracted the personal curiosity and professional attention of Russian ethnographer and theoretician Petr Bogatyrev and Czech journalist writer Ivan Olbracht Both traveled extensively in the region and immersed themselves deeply in the life and culture of the local residents Carpatho Rusyns and Hasidic Jews Witnesses to Interwar Subcarpathian Rus The Sojourns of Petr Bogatyrev and Ivan Olbracht explores for the first time in English the legacy they bequeathed in their respective work Bogatyrev as an apolitical ethnographic collector and theoretician and Olbracht as a passionately committed Communist whose reports and brilliant stories from the region including Nikola uhaj Brigand and The Sorrowful Eyes of Hannah Karadjic capture a glimpse of a world destined to change radically as a result of the ravages of war Educating for Social Justice in Early Childhood Shirley A. Kessler, Beth Blue Swadener, 2019-09-10 Bringing together scholarship and examples from practice this book explores ways in which early childhood curriculum including classroom practices and community contexts can more actively engage with a range of social justice issues democratic principles and anti oppressive practices Featuring a stellar list of expert contributors the chapters in this volume present a cross section of contemporary issues in childhood education The text highlights the voices of children teachers and families as they reflect on everyday experiences related to issues of social justice inclusion and oppression as well as ways young children and their teachers engage in activism Chapters explore curriculum and programs that address justice issues particularly educating for democracy and culminate in a focus on the future offering examples of resistance and visions of hope and possibility Designed for practitioners graduate students and researchers in early childhood this book challenges readers to explore the ways in which early childhood education is and can be engaging with social justice and democratic practices Developing Twentieth Century China: An Annotated Bibliography of Reference Works in Chinese, Japanese and Western Languages James H. Cole, 2019-07-23 This bibliography of reference works from Chinese, Japanese and Western language sources covers the 1911 Revolution, the Republic of China, 1912-1949, the People's Republic of China, 1949 onwards, post-1911 Hong Kong and Macau, and post-1911 overseas Chinese. Filled with helpful checklists, charts, and suggestions for further reading, this practical, comprehensive, and multidisciplinary guide takes readers through the entire case writing process, including skills for writing both teaching cases and research cases. This edition includes new discussions of students as case writers and how to interpret and respond to reviews, as well as updated and expanded material on video, multimedia, and Internet cases.

Straddling Borders Elaine Rusinko, 2003-01-01 The Subcarpathian Rusyns are an East Slavic people who live along the southern slopes of the Carpathian mountains where the borders of Ukraine, Slovakia, and Poland meet. Through centuries of oppression under the Austro-Hungarian and Soviet empires, they have struggled to preserve their culture and identity. Rusyn literature, reflecting various national influences and written in several linguistic variants, has historically been a response to social conditions, an affirmation of identity, and a strategy to ensure national survival. In this first English language study of Rusyn literature, Elaine Rusinko looks at the literary history of Subcarpathia from the perspective of cultural studies and postcolonial theory, presenting Rusyn literature as a process of continual negotiation among states, religions, and languages, resulting in a characteristic hybridity that has made it difficult to classify Rusyn literature in traditional literary scholarship. Rusinko traces Rusyn literature from its emergence in the sixteenth century through the national awakening of the mid-nineteenth century and its struggle for survival under Hungarian oppression to its renaissance in inter-war Czechoslovakia. She argues that Rusyn literature provides an acute illustration of the constructedness of national identity and has prefigured international postmodern culture with its emphasis on border crossings, intersecting influences, and liminal spaces. With extracts from Rusyn texts never before available in English, Rusinko's study creates an entirely new perspective on Rusyn literature that rescues it from the clichés of Soviet-dominated critical theory and makes an important contribution to Slavic studies in particular and postcolonial critical studies in general.

Cultural History, 2003

Twentieth Century China James H. Cole, 2004 Emphasizing reference works published since 1964, these volumes cover books, periodicals, and inclusions, i.e. chapters in edited volumes, on the 1911 Revolution, the Republic of China, 1949, post-1911 Taiwan, post-1911 Hong Kong and Macao, and post-1911 overseas Chinese.

People, States and Regions Anne Hammerstad, 2005 This book assesses the achievements of Southern African security integration in a comparative perspective. Edited by Dr Anne Hammerstad, it highlights some of the main challenges facing SADC and suggests some potential ways they could be overcome by learning from other regional initiatives. It argues that of the regional organisations reviewed, SADC could, in particular, benefit from emulating some of the practical policies developed by the Organisation for Security and Co operation in Europe to build and strengthen democratic governance and the rule of law in member states SADC would also do well to take a closer look at ECOWAS s border approach to dealing proactively with political crises in the West African region The book compares the vision of the SADC s regional security integration scheme set out in various regional agreements with its reality Then it places SADC s security integration efforts within the greater picture of the transformation of Africa s security architecture Lastly it reviews SADC s efforts in a global comparative perspective by looking at the efforts of other regional organisations such as the OSCE and the ASEAN Publisher description
