Louis Pasteur René Vallery-Radot, 1885 In the early part of the present year the French original of this work was sent to me from Paris by its author It was accompanied by a letter from M Pasteur expressing his desire to have the work translated and published in English The translator's task was not always an easy one but it has I think been well executed A few slight abbreviations for which I am responsible have been introduced but in no case do they affect the sense It was moreover found difficult to render into suitable English the title of the original M Pasteur Histoire d'un Savant par un Ignorant A less piquant and antithetical English title was therefore substituted for the French one This filial tribute for such it is was written under the immediate supervision of M Pasteur by his devoted and admiring son in law M Valery Radot It is the record of a life of extraordinary scientific ardour and success the picture of a mind on which facts fall like germs upon a nutritive soil and like germs so favoured undergo rapid increase and multiplication
