Douglas Toma, 2010-11-15 Every university or college president envisions bold initiatives big projects intended to change the nature of an institution with significant implications across all sectors How can leaders and senior managers charged with implementing reforms effectively frame their work and anticipate potential pitfalls No organization can maximize its capacity defined as the administrative foundation essential for establishing and sustaining initiatives without considering its core elements individually and in concert according to J Douglas Toma This book examines eight essential organizational elements purposes structure governance policies processes information infrastructure and culture and illuminates their influence in strategic management through case studies at eight institutions Building Organizational Capacity situates strategic management within the context of higher education providing practitioners with the tools to better understand institutional challenges in accomplishing its missions and realizing its aspirations Toma's clear and well integrated review of the latest research as well as his advice for decision makers applying the book's lessons in practice ensures this volume's place in the growing literature on strategy and management in higher education Value Management Roger H. Davies, 2016-02-17 Change programmes in both private and public sectors have a poor record of delivering their intended value The reasons given most often for their failure include lack of executive support or buy in from key users loose requirements definition weak programme management and plain wishful thinking They rarely include technical limitations Value Management puts forward the view that the true problem lies in failing to understand the causal links between the intended stakeholder outcomes and the actual programme outputs Repeating the pattern of failure can be avoided by asking two questions Before implementation what capabilities must a change programme deliver when and in what order so as to cause intended value against a defined purpose with speed and certainty During and after implementation what minor adjustments and or major shifts are needed to be certain that the programme remains on purpose and on value and two answers to be given Target time and align change programmes to deliver maximum intended value to stakeholders the baseline business case track and respond to changes during and beyond implementation to ensure that the programme actually delivers or exceeds intended value value realisation The authors show how by asking and answering these questions direction and delivery of any programme can be clarified and greater economic value achieved Next Generation Management Development Robert D. Cecil, William J. Rothwell, 2007 This innovative comprehensive and fully integrated management development program provides a vehicle for enabling managers and leaders to participate more effectively in their organization's OD processes The concepts models tools and other materials have been used successfully to train managers leaders and MD OD personnel in
