Independent As F Ben Pedroche, For a glorious ten year period from 1995 to 2005 hip hop music received a much needed shot in the arm from a generation of determined and wildly creative rappers and producers They rallied against the increasingly formulaic and shallow world of mainstream rap as well as a music industry unwilling to listen By releasing music on their own terms as independent artists many adopting the mantra of being independent as fuck as a mission statement these hungry creatives reclaimed their artistic freedom and wore it as a badge of honour Most importantly they also made a lot of excellent hip hop What emerged was a vibrant underground music scene that stretched from New York to Los Angeles with influence reaching across the world Independent as F Underground Hip hop from 1995 2005 looks back at this golden era celebrating the most important artists record labels 12 records and albums along with the stories behind them while also shining a light on those who have since been forgotten Lovingly researched and curated this book is the ultimate guide to a special time in music history one that continues to inspire each new wave of hip hop artists decades later Atlantic Rim Natural Gas Field Development Project, 2006

Bring That Beat Back Nate Patrin, 2020-06-09 How sampling remade hip hop over forty years from pioneering superstar Grandmaster Flash through crate digging preservationist and innovator Madlib Sampling incorporating found sound and manipulating it into another form entirely has done more than any musical movement in the twentieth century to maintain a continuum of popular music as a living document and in the process has become one of the most successful and commercial strains of postmodern art Bring That Beat Back traces the development of this transformative pop cultural practice from its origins in the turntable manning record spinning hip hop DJs of 1970s New York through forty years of musical innovation and reinvention Nate Patrin tells the story of how sampling built hip hop through the lens of four pivotal artists Grandmaster Flash as the popular face of the music's DJ born beginnings Prince Paul as an early champion of sampling's potential to elaborate on and rewrite music history Dr Dre as the superstar who personified the rise of a stylistically distinct regional sound while blurring the lines between sampling and composition and Madlib as the underground experimentalist and record collector antiquarian who constantly broke the rules of what the mainstream expected from hip hop From these four artists histories and the stories of the people who collaborated competed and evolved with them Patrin crafts a deeply informed eminently readable account of a facet of pop music as complex as it is commonly underestimated the aesthetic and reconstructive power of one of the most revelatory forms of popular culture to emerge from postwar twentieth century America And you can nod your head to it A Stone's Throw Lady Genesta Hamilton, 1986

The Rhetoric of Violence Kamal Abdel-Malek, 2016-04-30 Despite the urgent need to develop understandings of the Palestinian Israeli conflict in the light of the current situation in the Middle East the role of violence and reconciliation in Palestinian and Israeli literature and film has received only brief treatment This book is intended to fill that void that is to explore how Israelis and Palestinians view and depict themselves and each other in situations that lead to either violence or reconciliation and the ways in which both parties define themselves in relation to one another The book examines selected Palestinian and Israeli literary works and a small number of films and their tacit assumptions about Israeli Jews It will attempt to look at among other questions a is violence perceived as a means of empowerment b is there connection between imaginary violence in literature and actual violence and what is the nature of the association between creative writers and violence eg popular writer Ghassan Kanafani who is also a spokesman for the violent PFLP Stone,1900 Surgical Diseases and Injuries of the Genito-urinary Organs Sir John William Thomson-Walker,1914
