Making Futures Pelle Ehn, Elisabet M. Nilsson, Richard Topgaard, 2014-10-31 Experiments in innovation design and democracy that search not for a killer app but for a collaboratively created sustainable future Innovation and design need not be about the search for a killer app Innovation and design can start in people s everyday activities They can encompass local services cultural production arenas for public discourse or technological platforms The approach is participatory collaborative and engaging with users and consumers acting as producers and creators It is concerned less with making new things than with making a socially sustainable future This book describes experiments in innovation design and democracy undertaken largely by grassroots organizations non governmental organizations and multi ethnic working class neighborhoods These stories challenge the dominant perception of what constitutes successful innovations They recount efforts at social innovation opening the production process challenging the creative class and expanding the public sphere

The wide range of cases considered include a collective of immigrant women who perform collaborative services the development of an open hardware movement grassroots journalism and hip hop performances on city buses They point to the possibility of democratized innovation that goes beyond solo entrepreneurship and crowdsourcing in the service of corporations to include multiple futures imagined and made locally by often marginalized publics Contributors M ns Adler Erling Bj rgvinsson Karin Book David Cuartielles Pelle Ehn Anders Emilson Per Anders Hillgren Mads Hoby Michael Krona Per Linde Kristina Lindstr m Sanna Marttila Elisabet M Nilsson Anna Seravalli Pernilla Severson sa St hl Lucy Suchman Richard Topgaard Laura Watts
