

A Prayer for When Life Hurts Too Much

Lord, the pain is real, the weariness and stress great. Death has left me with a gaping hole in my heart, but it is life that pierces time and time again.

I feel alone in my misery even though I know I'm surrounded by those who love me and still more who pray for me and desire to encourage me.

There are others who hurt with the same deep ache. But that provides little comfort. My comfort comes in knowing You, in knowing that You are sovereign over even this—death itself. And in knowing that all I face and all those I love face You've sifted and allowed.

I don't understand it, Lord. Oh, how I don't understand it! But You do, and You love me; therefore, I'll trust in Your perfect and good will. Help me with that please. Forgive my insecurity, Father, and strengthen my faith. Help me share with others all You've done in my life and continue to do, even in this difficult season.

Open my senses and soften my heart to notice the blessings still in my life, the grace You pour out on me. Give me a humble and grateful heart.

Strengthen me to suffer well. Remind me of Your greatness and sovereignty. And continue to place songs of praise in my heart, so I can worship and glorify You even in the pain.

In Your mighty and merciful name, Amen.
